

MENLO THUGS ARE TRAILED; ARREST MADE

Father of Suspect Held After Concealed Wine Is Found;
S. F. Jitney Drivers Sought for Orgy at Peninsula Home

This announcement follows the arrest of Adrien Goursolle at 69 Downey street today on a charge of possessing stolen articles and the search for his son, Tony Goursolle, believed by the police to have been the leader of the band who was addressed by his men as "captain." Being made through the back door, the police for the first time the day basted the police for the first time nine members of the gang who were in the place and indulged in a drinking bout that lasted for nearly twenty-four hours while the members of the household were bound and gagged. The robbers entered the place on Wednesday night, Thursday morning taking with them $25,000 in gold and liquors from the vaults in the basement. The vault was drilled open by the robbers. In addition to the wines the robbers departed with a number of Persian rugs estimated at a high value.

Police Inspector learned that the wine had been moved into the house of Goursolle, a itineray driver in the park district, and the shotgun squashed to the scene prepared to take the robbers. At the place they found a man in a taxicab driver but his age, father, address, was proposed to have no knowledge of the theft.

FATHER OF SUSPECT ARRESTED BY POLICE.

A search of the house revealed 27 bottles of assorted wines, 14 cases of assorted liquors and $ five-gallon demijohns of wine. These contained under the name of "McNear," and the police, on this evidence, then the police arrested the elder Gourselle on a charge of having stolen property in his possession.

Immediately thereafter the members of the Park division commenced a search of the city for the young man as to the whereabouts of the young Gourselle, and received information which is being withheld, but which the police say, will lead not only to Gourselle's arrest but to the ultimate capture of the gang.

The jitney driver, those who operate on the Haight and San Francisco street lines, where Gourselle drove his machine, were first questioned at their places of business by the police and later ordered to appear at the police station.

There are seven drivers on the line exclusive of one woman who also was questioned. These drivers were forced by the police to give

The police said that it was between these hours that the banding was done. It was then about 11:30 a. m. that the men were taken to the police station between 3 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The police said that it was between these hours that the banding was done. It was then about 11:30 a. m. that the men were taken to the police station between 3 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

If they were all San Francisco men, they would have been arrested at the time of the raid.

$3000 WORTH OF LIQUORS RECOVERED.

The loot recovered at the Gonzales home amounts to about $3000 worth of liquors, including one or one-half of the entire lot, and according to Captain of Detectives, the men were taken to the police station between 3 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

That each of the eight men received a similar amount and the leader to a separate toll.

"As yet we have received no request for assistance from San Francisco," said Captain Matheson. "If they desire we will send some of our best detectives down there. Meanwhile I am clearing up the San Francisco end of the affair."

There are three automobiles in the possession of the men, and the police, under the direction of Detective Sergeant Arthur McQuay, who came to the city today, are looking for the three drivers.

detectives on the hunt are W. A. Milken, Baron, Burns and Dolan. The police believe that the robbery was planned by a jitter, driven led by Goursoule, who received information of the liquor cache at the McNear mansion and accomplished the robbery.

COOK IS COMPELLED TO PREPARE MEAL.

Six automobiles were used by the bandits, according to the police, and one of these automobiles was found at the home of Goursoule, a place in his basement were found containers for bottles of wine. The police believe that Goursoule was one of the members of the gang and say the others will be under arrest today.

The bandits went to the McNear mansion, which has been rented by Hart, a wealthy San Francisco ship importer, late Wednesday night. They overpowered the servants, bound and gagged the members of the household and proceeded to loot the place in systematic fashion, concrete vault holding the liquor valued at $100,000, and a large quantity of bottles of wine arrived at the cache of wines the bandits indulged.

BUTLER RECOUNTS VISIT OF ROBBERS

Regarding his experiences with the bandits, Herman DeVries, houseman at the McNear place told the following story:

"The butler, Daniel DeVries, and I were awakened by several strangers. One of them addressed by the others as "captain." He was apparently the erstwhile army leader of the men. He had a military bearing.

"Although I was tied the bonds were loosely knotted. First we were tied to the bedstead in my room but a little later it was decided to take outside the butler's pantry. There we found two men drinking liquor. Much of the liquor in the pantry which was the property of Mr. Hart was carried outside into the main Chinese.

"While we were tied in the pantry two men who had been drinking when we first came in became noisy. They began to smash dishes and we came otherwise boisterous. Finally it got to be quite a disturbance and then we were taken to the assembly hall. Here we found that other members of the gang were sorting the liquor.

"Eventually, when the work of sorting and transporting to the main Chinese was concluded, we were taken up to the library where the gang assembled before departing."

John Redmond's Son-in-Law Is Slain

BELFAST, March 3.—(By the Associated Press).—Max S. Green, chairman of the Irish prison board, was shot and killed in Dublin today, a Dublin message announces. He was a son-in-law of the late John Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader.

The shooting of Green occurred during a chase following a robbery. An official of the military of police carrying a considerable sum of money, was held up by armed men, who took from him a bag containing 600 pounds and ran away with it. The police gave chase and captured Mrs. C. P. Donnelly, 1920 Nevin avenue, who had the money in her possession.

Washington Defeats Stanford Debaters

SEATTLE, Wash., March 3.—Juan Matthews and Herbert Hiescher, University of Washington debaters, defeated the Stanford University debating team, composed of Elmer McCaffery and Bertrand Compere, by a judge's vote of 2 to 1, here last night. Washington upheld the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, That the Federal government should levy a tax on manufacturers' sales."

WAR MOTHERS MEET.
RICHMOND, March 3.—State War Mother, Mrs. Mary Murry of Oakland, was present at today's session of War Mothers at the home of Mrs. C. P. Donnelly, 1920 Nevin avenue. The War Mothers enjoyed a social afternoon.

JEWISH WOMEN WILL TAKE PART IN CONFERENCE

Noted Coast Leaders to Join Interstate Rally That Opens March 9.

Jewish women of the coast will assemble in San Francisco on March 3 to participate in the three-day convention of the Second Interstate Conference of Jewish Women. The Saturday afternoon program will be held in Oakland when the officers and delegates become guests of honor at the first annual luncheon of the Berkeley Alliance of Jewish Women at Hotel Oakland. A motor tour of the scenic drives on this side of the bay will conclude the entertainment.

The Interstate Conference will assemble Thursday in the Fairmont hotel at 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Max C. Sloss will preside. The opening invocation will be offered by Rabbi Martin A. Meyer. Mrs. Julius Baer, president of the San Francisco Council, will extend the welcome. Mrs. S. M. Blumauer offering the response. A dinner at the Woman's Athletic club and a musicale directed by Cantor Reuben R. Rinder will conclude the first day's session.

Velfare subjects will inspire the Friday morning program. Speakers will be Mrs. Anne Godfrey, Miss Jeannette Wrothenberg and Dr. Caroline Maul. The council breakfast will take place at the Fairmont hotel following adjournment. Addresses will be given by Cynthia Perlman Linder, organizer in Americanization, New York State; Mrs. S. M. Blumauer, honorary president of the Interstate Conference; Mrs. Harry Sternberger, executive secretary of the Council of Jewish Women.

National officers will be honored at a dinner on Friday night, the Emanu-El Sisterhood being the hostess.

Services will be held Friday night in Temple Beth-Israel and Temple Emanuel-El, and on Saturday at 10:45 a. m. At the Hotel Oakland luncheon the list of speakers will include: Dr. David P. Barrows, president of the University of California; Rabbi Jacob Nieto, Rabbi Martin A. Meyer, Rabbi Rudolph I. Coffee, Mrs. Katherine P. Edson, executive secretary State Industrial Commission; Mrs. Harry Sternberger, Mrs. Julius Baer, Mrs. Max C. Sloss. The program of music will be rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Wright.

Pay of Executioner At Sing Sing Drops

OSSENING, N. Y., March 3.—Nineteen twenty-one was a poor year for State Executioner John Hulbert. His income fell off $750 from the previous year, when he had sixteen executions. Last year he had only eleven.

For each person he puts to death in the electric chair Hulbert gets $150. In addition to these fees, he draws a salary of $1500 for serving the state in another capacity. Prospects are for a more prosperous year for Hulbert in 1922. So far this year he has had three jobs. Three other men are to be executed soon, and twenty-five condemned men are now in the death-house.

'Life,' Cries Mother As Probation Urged For Girl Attacker

"If there is any justice in the land this man will go to San Quentin for life," cried Mrs. Mary Madrugra in Superior Judge Samuel's court today. "I protest against your giving him probation. My little girl is to become a mother and because she is a cripple the doctors say she cannot live through the ordeal."

Mrs. Madrugra was quieted by the bailiffs and Judge Samuel announced he would not rule on the case today. Mrs. Madrugra's protest was wrung from her when the probation officer's report recommended probation for Theodore Duarte of San Leandro charged with a crime against 13-year-old Mamie Madrugra. Duarte pleaded guilty to the crime several weeks ago and came before the court for report and sentence today.

SOCIAL SERVICE WORKER MISSING ON S. F. VISIT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Miss Wynne Crispin, social service worker of New York City and Los Angeles, is being sought following her mysterious disappearance in this city. The subject was from Los Angeles two weeks ago. She registered at the Plaza Hotel. She has not been seen by her friends since last Saturday night, when she gave notice that she was checking out of the hotel.

San Leandro May Secure Big Rodeo

SAN LEANDRO, March 3.—There is a possibility that San Leandro will be the selected site for a giant rodeo, planned to be held in the middle of May. The subject was broached to Marshal J. F. Peralta by James Clark, circus man and promoter of several successful rodeos, and according to Peralta, the matter will be placed before the board of trustees at a future date. It was stated by Clark that San Leandro was chosen as being an ideal location for such an affair, both weather, transportation and natural conditions surpassing several other proposed locations. The local fair park was selected by Clark as suitable for the rodeo. If agreed upon by the trustees, the entire matter would rest upon Clark, all outfits and participants being furnished by him.

ALAMEDA C. OF C. TO MEET.
ALAMEDA, March 3.—The Board of Directors of the Alameda Chapter of Commerce will hold an important business dinner meeting in Mead's Restaurant, in Park street, this evening, for the purpose of discussing fire policies.

SIX FIRES IN SIX MONTHS.
ALAMEDA, March 3.—Alameda suffered six fires during the past month, according to a report made by Fire Chief Walter Steinmetz, this morning. The six alarms resulted in a loss of $65.

BAD CHECK CHARGED.
R. A. Smith was held to answer in the Superior Court today by Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell of a charge of passing a fictitious check for $45. The check was passed on H. K. Albright, a grocer, who has a store at 2925 Union street. His bail was set at $2000.

POLICE SEEK MISSING WIFE

After not hearing from his wife, who disappeared saying that she was going to visit a friend in Oakland, for a week, G. A. Stott of Santa Cruz, wrote Police Chief James T. Drew, asking that the police department aid in an endeavor to locate her. Stott told the police that his wife left home on Feb. 23, leaving the baby with him, ostensibly to visit Mrs. Florence Arnold of 1048 Forty-eighth street, this city.

Stott placed the letter in the hands of Lieutenant Bert Curtis of the main police station, who went to the Arnold home and found no trace of the missing woman. Mrs. Arnold gave him the address of two other women friends on Fifty-sixth street where Mrs. Stott might have gone. It developed that she visited neither of these places.

The woman is described by her husband as of dark complexion and weighing about 120 pounds. She has black hair and brown eyes. She is 23 years old.

ORDERED OUT OF TOWN

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 3.—Twelve men, dressed in the garb of Ku Klux Klansmen, last night entered a pool hall operated by Quinn Farrabee and ordered him to leave the city within seven days. The proprietor of a negro barbershop and pool hall was ordered to "clean up or leave town." Farrabee declared he would defy the order.

Eleanor H. Porter has not written a more charming short story than "The Glory and the Sacrifice," which will appear in next Sunday's TRIBUNE Magazine.

California, particularly Northern California, is famous for its many landmarks associated with early history of the Pacific Coast. One of these is "Bloody Rock," along the north coast. Ross H. Ryder tells how the rock got its name in next Sunday's TRIBUNE Magazine.

LINEN SHOWER FOR NEEDY, IS NEWEST STUNT

SAN LEANDRO, March 3.—A new plan has been adopted by the Red Cross of San Leandro to lighten the unemployment situation. The heavy demands for bed coverings and linen materials and articles of other kinds has resulted in the establishment of the "Red Cross Linen Closet." Funds in the chapter's treasury have been used by Mrs. E. F. Mason, chairman, to purchase a large number of linen articles, to be loaned to those in temporary need. One of the specifications of the loan is that the goods are to be returned when the situation clears. It is also demanded by the Red Cross that materials be returned as nearly as possible in the present good condition.

Land Transfer Is Vetoed by Request

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Harding suggested to Congress today the adoption of a policy of definitely describing all lands ordered transferred from the public domain for the benefit of private individuals or of the forest service in exchange for land within the forest reserve. The suggestion was made by the President in vetoing, at the request of the Idaho delegation, a House resolution covering certain lands in Idaho.

BRITISH POLICY IN INDIA PLAYED AS BIG FAILURE

Moderate Party Says Continued Repression Will Avail Nothing.

MADRAS, India, March 3.—The policy adopted by the British government in India is characterized as a failure in an editorial in the current issue of the Indian Review, signed by G. A. Natesan, its editor. The magazine is one of the most conservative of the publications issued by Indians.

Its comment is regarded here as indicating, to some extent, the attitude to the leaders of the Moderate Party who, heretofore, have remained loyal to British rule. It has been claimed here that the government of India is losing the confidence of the leaders of this party because of what is called here its "policy of repression." The editorial writer says in part:

"In launching a policy of wholesale repression and indiscriminate arrests the government has played into the hands of non-cooperators. It has failed in Egypt and in Ireland and in India after the war. Such a policy defeats its own object by increasing the tension, alienating the popular sympathy and aggravating the general unrest."

West Oakland Home Board Meeting Set

The regular meeting of the West Oakland Home will be held at the home, 907 Campbell street, Monday morning at 11 o'clock. A board meeting will precede the business meeting. This will start at 10 o'clock. Mrs. W. E. Amann will preside at both meetings.

SAVANT SEEKS LANGUAGE WHICH ALL WILL KNOW

BERKELEY, March 3.—A language which can be understood by men of all nations is being sought by Professor J. V. Breitwieser, of the University, to aid the International Engineering Society. In order that scientific terms, and also ordinary words may bear the same meaning for engineers of all nations, the society has asked Professor Breitwieser to aid in selecting a language which may be universally used. Experiments will be conducted by linguists in which a philosophical paragraph will be translated into every foreign language in general use. The paragraph will then be rewritten in English, and the literal translation comparing closest to the original will be used as the test in selecting the common tongue.

DRY DIRECTOR REFUSES TO HEAR ACCUSED DOCTOR

E. Forrest Mitchell Hints At Personal Persecution and Walks From Room.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Dr. George F. Brackett, who was cited to appear this morning before Prohibition Director E. Forrest Mitchell to explain why he issued illegal liquor prescriptions, many of them to a prominent federal official, was served today by A. B. Stroup, general agent, and not by Director Mitchell.

Mitchell was in the room when Dr. Brackett entered, but declares that he would not have anything to do with any case involving personal politics. He stated that the hearing would therefore be conducted by Stroup, and left the room. Stroup thereupon told Dr. Brackett, to be exceedingly careful in his statements, and cautioned him that whatever he said might be used against him.

Dr. Brackett answered that he had nothing to conceal and would be glad to talk and reply to all questions. Stroup answered that he had decided, on second thought, to hold over the hearing until the arrival of Samuel Rutter, who is to succeed Director of Prohibition Mitchell.

Earlier in the day Director Mitchell and Deputy Director Tom Brown and other federal officials held a conference with Harry Brodsky. They refused to divulge the purpose of this conference, but stated that it had nothing to do with the case of Dr. Brackett.

Stanford Glee Club To Show at S. J.

SAN JOSE, March 3.—Music lovers of San Jose will enjoy an evening of music tonight when the Stanford Glee club comes to the Teachers' college for the opening concert of its season.

Warren D. Allen, Stanford organizer, will be in charge and has arranged a program of songs of unusual merit.

The glee club is composed of seventy members, all students of the university, and contains singers of more than passing ability and note.

Marsden Argall, '23, is bass soloist, and Richard Malaby, '23, is a pianist who have long since made their places in the music world.

Mrs. Warren D. Allen, well known as a singer, will be a special soloist this evening.

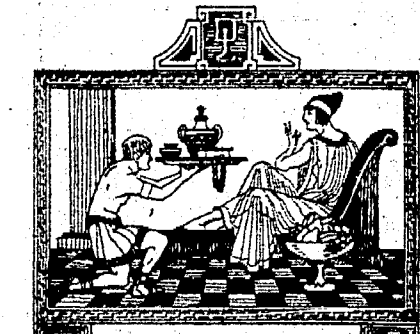

Jewelry Is Stolen In Burglar Raids

A burglar using a pass key entered the home of Mrs. A. Baker, 331 Sixteenth street, and stole three rings, a wrist watch and $2.50. The jewelry is valued at $300. The burglary was reported to the police last night.

Mrs. R. Doll, 1714 Forty-seventh avenue, reported to the police that jewelry valued at several hundred dollars was stolen during the past two weeks while she was away.

Girl Fatally Hurt In Auto-Car Crash

TACOMA, Wash., March 3.—Miss Monica Sorley, daughter of Deputy Prosecuting Attorney J. A. Sorley, is believed fatally injured, and Captain Ernest E. Boyle, Fourth Infantry, Camp Lewis, is painfully injured as the result of a collision between an automobile driven by Captain Boyle and a South Tacoma car here last night.

Quail Are Aid To Farmers Is Society's Claim

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 3.—Quail are songbirds, according to the executive committee of the State Humane Society. Maintaining that they are also allies of farmers, resolutions adopted by the committee urged that all farmers of the states they inhabit be asked to feed and care for them. It is asserted that the work and the small amount of grain thus expended would be abundantly repaid in the destruction of insect pests and the seeds of noxious weeds.

The resolution also proposes that quail shooting be prohibited indefinitely. Without such protection the birds are in danger of extermination, says Sam F. Fullerton, executive agent of the society. The society wants quail shooting stopped for a generation at least, he adds. Although there is now a closed season on quail in this state it will soon expire.

Injury Inflicted in Fight Causes Death

Chris Quatros, a section hand, residing in West Berkeley, died at the Emergency hospital today from injuries suffered yesterday in a fight at Campbell and Eighteenth streets with Angell Bassino, 173 Seventh street, another section hand. The police said Bassino, in all probability, will be charged with murder.

The men were employed on a Southern Pacific Company section crew repairing tracks at Campbell and Eighteenth streets. During a scuffle, according to a report made to the police, Quatros struck Bassino over the head with a hammer. The men then were separated.

A few minutes later, witnesses said, Bassino struck Quatros on the head with an iron crowbar.

Suspect Wanted Here Captured in Utah

Clarence Warren, 35 years old, alleged St. George mail robber, is believed to be in custody today at Salt Lake City, following the arrest of a man there answering his description. The mail car robbery occurred three years ago.

According to the Salt Lake police, unless some action is taken the man stands fair to gain freedom through habeas corpus proceedings begun by his attorney. Local police immediately got into communication with the department at Salt Lake City to prevent this step.

MOTHER SUES TO WIN YOUNGSTERS INJURED BY CAR

Divorcee, Hearing of Accident, Opens Fight to Have Decree Changed.

Her mother love aroused by the news that her children had been seriously injured in an auto accident, Mrs. Mary V. S. Smylie, wife of an official of the Six Minute Ferry Co. of Vallejo, today began a fight for a modification of her divorce decree from Albert A. Rogers which will give her custody of the three children. The divorce was granted to Mrs. Rogers Smylie three years ago. On a rainy night early last month, Emil Poetz, 1077 Pippin street, Oakland, driving homeward through the rain ran down a small calvacade consisting of Lawrence Rogers, aged 12, Florence, aged 11, and Robert, aged five. Lawrence was riding a bicycle and pulling Florence in a coaster wagon while Albert A. Rogers, the father, pushed Robert, the baby, in an improvised go-cart. They were on their way to Oakland from Los Angeles and had tramped the whole distance in all sorts of weather. Two of the children were seriously injured.

When Mrs. Smylie was given her divorce from Rogers she was awarded the custody of Robert, the other two children being given to the father. Later, according to Rogers, Mrs. Smylie abandoned Robert, who was turned over to Rogers.

Today Mrs. Smylie told Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure that following her divorce she married Charles Smylie in San Jose before her final decree. Rogers brought action against her for bigamy. "They tried to send me to prison," she said. "I didn't know I had done wrong. I thought a divorce was a divorce. It was only because I was too sick to be moved he did not have me thrown into a cell."

Rogers charges Smylie was the man who broke up his home and is fighting to prevent Mrs. Smylie being given the children because of that fact.

CRAZED BURGLAR SLAYS SIX. CONSTANTINOPLE, March 3.—While traveling from Constantinople, a Bulgarian officer went insane and killed the train conductor and five passengers.

Bethlehem Plants to Enlarge Facilities

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Joseph J. Tynan, general manager of the plants of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation of San Francisco Bay, left today for the east to confer with Charles Schwab, president of the company. Tynan goes to discuss the practicality of enlarging facilities for the construction of thirty million dollars' worth of Diesel engines in the local plant. It is understood that the original number of Diesel engines which are to be manufactured by the Bethlehem company for the purpose of the American merchant marine has been settled, the original figure having been only fifteen million dollars.

GRAFT IN GREECE. ATHENS, March 3.—Graft in ammunition working is believed to have caused the fatal shell explosion on the Greek destroyer Leon and a rigid investigation is now in progress.

New Religious Cult Fights Swiss Taxes

GENEVA, March 3.—The Antonians, a new religious cult said to have some points of similarity with Mormonism, have come into conflict with the authorities over taxes. One of the leaders, Mamade Barni and her three daughters, living at Hedingen, near Lucerne, tore their clothes to bits and jumped into a lake when police came to arrest them in an effort to collect taxes. The police, however, pulled the four women out of the water, wrapped them in blankets and took them off to jail.

The leaders, who have established headquarters at Zurich, profess belief in Communism and disbelief in the accepted forms of marriage.

SHOPLIFTING GAINS. NEW YORK, March 3.—Instead of shoplifting decreasing after the holidays, it is steadily increasing, according to secret reports made by local department stores.

Irish Free State

Amendment Beaten

LONDON, March 3. (By International News Service).—Lord Cecil's amendment to the Irish Free State bill, by which the Ulster boundary alterations would be referred to a minor adjustments and not to large transfers of Ulster territory to the free state, was defeated in the House of Commons this afternoon. The vote was 199 to 60. Defeat of the amendment carried with it closure of debate and virtually assured passage of the Irish Free State act upon third and final reading. The Unionist "die hards" in the Commons have carried a consistent fight to amend the Irish Free State act, but have been defeated in every encounter by the adherents of Premier Lloyd George.

The navy plane "G-R" will fly 150 miles an hour for 20 hours with 12 passengers.

SCHOOL BOARD BARS TEACHERS OF OTHER STATE

After March 15 no applicant for a teacher's position in Oakland will be accepted unless he or she has had a certain amount of training in a California institution, including a course in the California school system. This order was issued yesterday by the Oakland board of education. According to educators it means that teachers cannot be imported from other States without some special California training, and it gives California teachers preference in Oakland schools. The language of the order follows:

"Resolved, that after March 15, 1922, applicants for the general elementary credential will not be accepted until the applicants have had at least six semester hours of work in a teacher-training institution in California, including a course in the California school system."

All teachers who have come into the school department from outside states before this rule goes into effect will remain. After March 15 the gates are closed.

Y. W. C. A. TO GREET CHIEF. Miss Susan M. Rebhan, traveling city secretary of the Pacific Field, Y. W. C. A., will make an official visit to the Oakland association Monday. A conference with the local staff is announced. Under the guidance of Miss Alice Brookman executive secretary, and Mrs. Edwin Pond James, international institute, she will make a survey of the six headquarters and various branches in the city.

Much has been written about queens of the Apaches of Paris, until the matter is almost relegated to the category of things fictitious. However, Sterling Helle, Oakland TRIBUNE special writer in Paris, brings forth interesting data to prove that there are queens of the Apaches, and he tells about some of them in next Sunday's Magazine.

OAKLAND SCHOOL NEEDS DECLARED $1,000,000 YEARLY

Supervising Architect Dickey, in Optimist Club Talk Outlines Plans.

Charles W. Dickey, supervising architect of the Oakland school building program, declared today before the members of the Optimist club at the Hotel Oakland that the $5,000,000 provided by the city for the building of new schools is inadequate to meet the situation. He said the city would need to expend $1,000,000 a year to keep pace with the city's education needs. He said, in part:

"The bonds, amounting to nearly $5,000,000, were voted for by the people on October 21, 1919. The Board of Education created an advisory committee of five prominent business men, who later resigned, and a committee of five was appointed. The old board organized a constructive department, headed by Marston Campbell as chief of construction and myself as supervising architect."

"About $75,000 worth of land was purchased at prices averaging considerably below the present market. Four new elementary schools were built and additions to fourteen other schools. These buildings contained classrooms for 3200 pupils. In planning the buildings I had the cooperation of the principals of many of Oakland's schools and we held over 250 meetings, studying every phase of school requirement."

"I have now added eight draughtsmen to my force, have let contracts for the Lockwood and Alexander Hamilton Junior High schools, for which appropriations total $450,000; have completed the plans and specifications for the University High school, which have been accepted by the board with an appropriation of $500,000, and next Monday will present the completed plans for the Elmhurst Junior High school."

SCHOOLS' GROWTH. "But let me warn you that the $5,000,000 has not been sufficient to enable the school department to catch up with the demand for space in schools."

"Last year there was an increase of 4000 in school attendance, and we may expect a like increase this year. If we assume that 1000 were of high school age and junior high school age and 3000 of elementary age, we would have to provide for them buildings costing $500,000, besides sites and furnishings. This means that to properly keep pace with the rapid growth of our city it will require over $1,000,000 per year in new schools and school grounds."

Novelist Divorced; Triangle Charged

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Eleanor Roosevelt, novelist and lecturer, was granted a divorce yesterday by Judge P. A. Griffin. The original action was brought a little more than a year ago. Mason was charged with having an affair with another woman whose home was in Paris.

Not long ago The Oakland TRIBUNE published an article about flowers that grew above the Arctic Circle, which proved a revelation to most Californians. Next Sunday another writer contributes "Flowers of the Volcanoes," which reveals that flowers actually grow on the smoldering cinders of Hawaiian volcanoes.

Crow's Feet, Wrinkles Enlarged Pores Vanish

Delightful New Vanishing Cream Containing True Butter Milk Must Show a Decided Improvement Within 24 Hours or Money Back.

The first application of Howard's Butter Milk Cream will astonish you. The dull, most lifeless complexion is turned to radiant beauty and red and white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use. It actually vanishes where it will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin. No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, or a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Butter Milk Cream.

To prove this to your complete satisfaction, get a package to-day of any first class drug or toilet goods counter. Insist on Howard's Butter Milk Cream. No other cream can take its place.

Should you have any difficulty in obtaining this wonderful Cream locally, we will send a full sized package of both Cream and Soap for $1.00. In any case don't hesitate to send 10 cents (silver or stamp) for generous trial package and convince yourself of their merits. Howard Bros. Company, 24 Main St., San Francisco, Calif. All druggists. Japan Moves for Korean Suffrage

TOKYO, March 3.—(International News Service).—A resolution sponsored by the Seiyun-Kai, or majority party, introduced in the diet today, asks that the preliminary steps necessary to granting suffrage to Koreans be taken at once. This move is a part of the government preparations to include Korea as a part of Japan proper and when completed will sound the death knell to the remaining hopes of Korea for independence.

Youth Who Killed Chum Electrocuted

OSSINING, N. Y., March 3.—George McCormick, 21 years old, murderer of his chum, Edward Shannon, whom he killed in New York after a quarrel over a $5 bet, was put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison last night. He pleaded audibly as the current was turned on. The condemned steadfastly refused to permit his mother and brother to visit him in the death house.

WOMAN ATTACKER SENTENCED

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., March 3.—Charles Lasher, 27, who pleaded guilty to having attempted to attack three women, one of them an assistant professor at Vassar College, was sentenced yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Morschauer to an aggregate of 25 years in Sing Sing prison.

$700,000 BOND FIGHT WON BY MILLER & LUX

Madera Irrigation District Is Enjoined From Proposed Chowchilla Project.

LOS ANGELES, March 3.—A decision in favor of Miller & Lux, in the injunction suit brought by that firm against the Madera Irrigation District, enjoining the issuance of $700,000 bonds for the Chowchilla project, was on file in the United States District Court here yesterday.

Judge Oscar A. Trippet, in rendering the decision, supported the contention of the plaintiff that the irrigation district had no right to issue bonds except in the way and for the purpose voted by the landowners affected.

The plaintiff charged that the $700,000 bonds, if used for the Chowchilla project, as the irrigation district planned, would be an illegal diversion of part of the $2,500,000 bonds originally voted by the district, alleging the Chowchilla project was not within the plans as submitted to the voters.

The original irrigation project, it was stated, covered Fresno and San Joaquin river territory and was planned to irrigate 350,000 acres, of which Miller & Lux owned 40,000.

It was asserted that after the bond issue of $2,500,000 had been voted, it was sought to spend $700,000 for the Chowchilla plan, involving the diversion of the Chowchilla river waters, although the proceedings of the board of directors of the district disclosed the adoption of a resolution that no further bonds, except $500,000, should be sold until the right of the district to divert the waters of the San Joaquin river should have been affirmed by the courts of California, and that no construction of dams, canals or other work should be begun until after such affirmation.

The defendants alleged that under the law they had the right, after the voting of the bonds, to utilize other sources of water supply than those named in the call for the election authorizing the bond issue, and that the Chowchilla project was well within the rights of the directors, on the general argument that the landowners wanted water without regard to where it was obtained.

Bataille, Parisian Dramatist, Is Dead

PARIS, March 3.—The death is announced of Henry Bataille, the dramatist.

Henry Bataille, who became one of the most popular dramatists in Paris, was born in 1872. He gave to the theater among other works, "Thy Blood," a modern tragedy in four acts; "Enchantment," a comedy; "The Mask," also a comedy; "Resurrection," a drama adapted from a novel by Tolstoy; "Mother Colibri," and "The Nuptial March." His biggest success was said to be "The Thief," later named "The Scoundrel."

LYKO

Look! There's the Light of Hope—an Unfailing Omen of Good Health and a Long Life.

LYKO Illuminates the Future With Its Rays of Hope

For All Who Would Enjoy Perfect Health

This remarkable tonic is the inspiration and joy of the weak and debilitated. It brings back the sunshine of existence to those of lost vitality. It opens up wonderful visions of the future to the down-cast, weary-laden souls depressed in spirit and body. It creates the strength and the courage to fight winning battles in those who have lost heart, given up exhausted under the strain and weight of their daily burdens. It kindles anew the vital spark of life in the slumbering body of the languishing, causing it to burst forth at last in a radiant glow of perfect health.

"LYKO" is, indeed, of great restorative power; in fact, Nature's first aid in nearly all sub-normal conditions. A general tonic in the broadest sense, it rebuilds the entire system because of its effective and beneficial action upon all of the principal organs of the body. It increases the appetite, promotes digestion and proper assimilation, strengthens the nerves, tones the heart, improves the function of the liver, regulates the bowels and tends to relieve suppressed conditions of the kidneys.

If you are thin-blooded, pale and weak, physically and nervously exhausted, generally run-down, devoid of animation, or lacking in endurance and staying qualities and mentally depressed in consequence, let "LYKO" recreate your vital force and bring back to you that buoyancy, energy and cheerfulness of former days. Try it today and see how much better you feel tomorrow. Your druggist has "LYKO." Get a bottle today.

The Cost of the Lowest Bid

NOWHERE does false economy exact such heavy penalties from the inexperienced as it does in the employment of electrical contracting service.

The difference in the bid of the qualified, responsible electrical contractor and the irresponsible is usually only about one-half of one per cent ($50.00 on a $10,000.00 house.)

And the householder who thinks that $50.00 worth saving will eventually spend five times as much in repairing faulty materials and workmanship or installing additional outlets whose omission made the lower bid possible.

The use of materials of quality and high standards will in a large measure determine the reliability and integrity of the electrical contractor.

Look for the "check" seal on electrical appliances and materials. This standard electrical merchandise, chosen from the markets of the world, inspected and certified, is distributed through qualified contractors and dealers.

The Pacific States Electric seal is, therefore, a guide not only to reliable electrical appliances and installation materials, but also helps to identify the competent contractor.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia all start with a cold. At the first sign of fever, the moment you get those warning aches, get busy with good old Musterole.

Musterole is a counter-irritant that goes right after congestion (which is what a cold really is) and restores normal circulation.

It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the unpleasant sting and blister.

During the big "Flu" epidemic several years ago Musterole was used in our training camps. The Y. M. C. A. War Board sent thousands of jars to our boys in France. Doctors have been recommending it to their patients for years.

Just rub it on the congested parts with your finger tips. First you will feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

If there are colds in your house get Musterole on the job at once. It may prevent serious illness. It is a good plan to have Musterole always on the bathroom shelf for the emergency.

Sold by all druggists, 35c and 65c, in jars and tubes; hospital size $2.00.

GARBAGE SYSTEM OF BERKELEY PUT ON PROFIT BASIS

Report to Show $2000 Paid on Trucks With $900 Balance on Hand.

BERKELEY, March 2.—After a three-hour conference between members of the city council and the committee appointed by Mayor Louis Bartlett to investigate the municipal garbage collection system, it was announced that a report from the committee will be forthcoming within the next few days.

A meeting of the committee headed by H. H. Gastman has been called for Sunday at the home of Fred G. Athearn after which a report will be submitted to the council in time for next Tuesday's meeting.

That the municipal collection system earned $900 for the city during the month of February in addition to paying off $2000 on motor trucks and other equipment purchased for the new city venture was the surprise sprung at the session by Councilman Charles D. Heywood in the form of an official report from Auditor Elmer Bell. The statement placed the expenditures at $7742.57 and the receipts at $8712.57, the former figures including $2000 spent for the purchase of trucks.

Berkeley's garbage collection system is more economically run than Sacramento's, where municipal collection was installed after the college city began work, declared Councilman Heywood who pointed to figures obtained by Mayor Louis Bartlett from the latter city to prove his statements. Sacramento's average $900 per month. He declared that a smaller amount of garbage was being collected in that city than in Berkeley.

PASTOR OF OLD N. Y. PARISH TO BE MISSIONARY

Preacher Is To Be Affiliated With Unitarian Churches of United States.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Dr. William L. Sullivan has resigned his pastorate at All Souls' Unitarian Church to accept the invitation of the Unitarian Laymen's League to become a missionary to Unitarian churches of the United States and Canada. His ministry, which began in 1914, will end as soon as All Souls' selects his successor.

In announcing his intention of accepting the invitation of the laymen, Dr. Sullivan predicted that unless the present decline in church membership was halted the Protestant church membership of Greater New York in thirty years would be not more than 10 per cent of the population.

"The Unitarian Laymen's League," he wrote, "wishing to further the missionary work already carried on by our churches and administrative officers, has decided upon a plan of systematic mission activity for the invigorating of our own congregations and the publishing of our free faith to such as do not know it, but greatly need it."

DECISION IS VERY IMPORTANT.

"This is a decision of immense importance. It not only means that the laymen of the league are filled with earnestness and zeal; we knew that before. It means, moreover, that these far-sighted men have a deep understanding of the historic day we are living in and perceive what spiritual opportunity and what spiritual dangers confront us. They see the uncertainty and confusion into which the venerable creeds of Christendom have fallen. They observe the multitudes who are departing from any church which is hesitant and embarrassed in proclaiming and defining its first principles.

"They are aware of such conditions as this, for instance, that if the present decline continues the borough of the Bronx will in ten years have a smaller proportionate membership in Protestant churches than the island of Ceylon; and in thirty years the Protestant church membership of Greater New York will be only between 5 and 10 per cent of the population.

UNCHURCHED MASSES ARE NOT INFIDELS.

"They look upon the country as a whole and discover in many parts of it, especially in the cities, a secession from organized Christianity almost as ominous. They are impressed with the possibility that this nation will abandon Christianity, and they accurately appreciate the cost of such a disaster in spiritual impoverishment and moral danger.

"Yet our laymen know, as we all do, that the unchurched masses are not anti-religious nor of an infidel obstinacy. Indeed, these lapsed Christians would rather return to the churches they have left than freeze their souls and starve their minds in skeptical conventicles or atheist societies. They cannot forever live without God. For their own sakes, and their children's, and their country's they must find again the way to the Eternal and recover the moral safety and spiritual inspiration that come from communion with Him. The more intelligent of them are simply waiting for a religion that will have Christ's simplicity and will offer them the liberty that He taught and the spiritual experience that He inculcated. Such is the need, the opportunity and the danger that the Laymen's League is determined to meet."

French Editors Fly For Swords as New Regime Flays Old

PARIS, March 3 (By the Associated Press).—All Paris is awaiting the outcome of an effort by Louis Latzarus, retiring editor-in-chief of the Figaro, to obtain satisfaction from its new editors for their initial editorial, to which he took offense.

Latzarus first challenged Alfred Capus, but the latter, who is 64 years old, told Latzarus' seconds he had to be ceased to be even amused by such challenges and that, anyway, it was customary that the younger man should be challenged when two were jointly involved, referring to Marquis Robert de Fiers, aged 50, his co-editor.

Later, when the marquis heard of the incident, he promptly sent his seconds to Latzarus, who has not yet replied, but is known to be a Capus and the Marquis de Fiers are members of the French Academy and the former is well known as a dramatist.

The Figaro, an influential morning newspaper, was taken over on February 28 by M. Coty, a perfume manufacturer, and a group of associates. When the purchase was first announced Latzarus attacked the new proprietor in bitter terms, and described him as a radical Socialist belonging to the "party of which Calixtaux was formerly the acknowledged chief." At the same time Edouard Calixtaux, son of the former director, Gaston Calixtaux, who was shot dead by Mme. Calixtaux, announced his resignation as general secretary of the Figaro.

SUPER-WOMAN, 47, SAYS MARRIAGE TO BOY FAILURE

Middle-aged Woman Weds a Young Soldier, But Romance Goes on Ricks.

BOSTON, March 2.—Because she is a superwoman, Mrs. Eugene Young Dickerman, 47, says her shattered romance, with her twenty-seven-year-old husband, Robert Elliot Dickerman, was bound to fail.

"I am a superwoman! And that is not my fortune, but my misfortune," she lamented today.

"A superwoman cannot hope to hold the man she loves if he is her mental inferior."

The "boy husband," as Dickerman is known here, and his middle-aged bride separated shortly after their marriage July 4, 1919. Mrs. Dickerman is now suing her mother-in-law for $100,000 damages for alleged alienation of the "boy husband's" affections.

The history of her wrecked romance is being bared by letters read in open court.

LETTERS' BARE ROMANCE.

In one letter, written to her mother-in-law after young Dickerman had deserted their love, the "superwoman" writes:

"We superwomen apparently are never mated with supermen. I crawl on my hands and knees to you both. Robert says I am too old, that you cannot accept me. However, the end is out of the bag now, and I have no regrets.

"Tell him I love him and want him. And I cry out: 'My God, my God, why hast thou deserted me?'"

Robert Dickerman and his wife's two were "buddies" overseas. The two young men, it is said, were inseparable until Robert met his buddy's middle-aged mother in Paris, where she was a Red Cross worker. The son is reported to have objected to the marriage, and he and his young stepfather have not spoken to each other since, according to gossip.

After the couple had obtained a marriage license at Fairfield a telephone call from the young man asked Colonel Filmer to meet him in Vallejo for the wedding ceremony. He responded and the wedding occurred in the Episcopal church, with Rev. McGovern officiating.

Filmer and his bride came to Oakland.

COL. FILMER'S SON, GIRL ELOPE

A merry wedding supper last night at the Hotel Oakland served as the culmination for a rapid-fire courtship and an elopement which joined in matrimony Miss Helen Snow, attractive senior student at Middle-town high school, in Lake county, and George Lyons Filmer Jr. of San Francisco.

The announcement was made by Colonel George Filmer, father of the bridegroom. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Snow of Lake county.

The wedding was scheduled to take place on June 1, but when the bride's father could not be persuaded to set the date ahead of graduation day at the high school, plans for the elopement were laid by the young couple.

After the couple had obtained a marriage license at Fairfield a telephone call from the young man asked Colonel Filmer to meet him in Vallejo for the wedding ceremony. He responded and the wedding occurred in the Episcopal church, with Rev. McGovern officiating.

Filmer and his bride came to Oakland.

WHO WEARS OUT YOUR HUSBAND'S CUFF EDGES?

It is not your husband's fault that his cuffs get frayed and have to be turned while the shirt is still good. To be sure he gets the cuffs dirtier than any other part of the shirt, but it is the rubbing you do getting the dirt out that wears the material.

Most of that rubbing is not necessary. Soaking in Rinso will get the cuffs just as clean without weakening a single thread. The rich, cleansing Rinso suds gently loosen all the dirt so that a thorough rinsing carries it off. If there is sometimes a fine line that is not entirely soaked out, rub lightly with dry Rinso, and that too will disappear at once.

Make your husband's shirts last twice as long. Save the wear and tear of rubbing so disastrous to clothes, such a drain on your own strength.

WORE ONLY EARRINGS.

BERLIN, March 4.—The local purity campaign has begun, and Lola Bach will wear clothes for the next month at least. Fraulien Bach and her troupe of dancers, who have aroused all sorts of sensations in a cabaret, were in the police court. Fraulien Bach was given a month's imprisonment, and her assistants had testified they wore only earrings in addition to the charms nature gave them.

WHO WEARS OUT YOUR HUSBAND'S CUFF EDGES?

It is not your husband's fault that his cuffs get frayed and have to be turned while the shirt is still good. To be sure he gets the cuffs dirtier than any other part of the shirt, but it is the rubbing you do getting the dirt out that wears the material.

Most of that rubbing is not necessary. Soaking in Rinso will get the cuffs just as clean without weakening a single thread. The rich, cleansing Rinso suds gently loosen all the dirt so that a thorough rinsing carries it off. If there is sometimes a fine line that is not entirely soaked out, rub lightly with dry Rinso, and that too will disappear at once.

Make your husband's shirts last twice as long. Save the wear and tear of rubbing so disastrous to clothes, such a drain on your own strength.

CLUB PRESIDENTS OFFER GREETINGS AT ROTARY LUNCH

Representatives of Many Business Organizations Respond to Invitations.

Presidents' Day was observed yesterday at the luncheon-meeting of the Rotary Club at the Hotel Oakland. In response to an invitation from the Rotarians, extended by President Carsten F. Schmidt, presidents of various local clubs attended the meeting.

Co-operation in the work of furthering the interests and ideals of the community and of the nation formed the keynote of most of the brief talks.

In introducing the speakers, President Schmidt said, in part: "In inviting you here today we want you to know that we are pleased with any effort made to make this a better city and a better nation to live in."

He referred to the activities of the various business men and business women's clubs as "friendly rivalry in the art of doing good." Eleven other clubs were represented.

Allen C. Hibbard, president of the Kiwanis Club, said: "I extend to you greetings from the Kiwanis Club. We now have a membership of 60,000 and have 600 clubs scattered throughout the country. We members of the Kiwanis Club are behind Rotary."

Arthur W. Moore, president of the Lions Club, said: "The business club idea may be compared to the branch lines of a railroad which lead to one terminal. If the load is too great for one engine then a couple are made, an engine ahead, and another one or two in the middle, if necessary, and in that way the train makes the grade. These engines may be represented by the various business clubs. They must all work in the same direction."

Ralph Seely, president of the Mutual Business Club, said: "I feel that I have a working interest in your organization. An invitation will be sent to your club shortly to meet with the Mutual Business Club with

Car Thief Suspect Taken in Utah

RICHMOND, March 3.—Richmond police this morning received a wire from Salt Lake city police reporting apprehension of C. Warren, who is suspected as one of the men wanted in the recent Santa Fe box car thefts near here. The Richmond police wired full description of the wanted man and asked the Utah authorities to hold the suspect.

Three other men have been arrested in connection with the Santa Fe freight car thefts. They are H. L. Roston, who has been held in the superior court, and A. A. Coop and R. H. Howard, charged with receiving stolen goods. C. Warren is believed to be the man who boarded the Santa Fe freight train about 2:30 on the night of February 18 at the South street viaduct in north Richmond.

The idea of arranging for a get-together meeting at least once in three months.

Donald McClure, president of the One Hundred Per Cent Club, said: "We, the youngest club of your kind, bring greetings to you, the oldest club."

Norman E. Metcalf, president of the Progressive Business Club, said: "Co-operation is the keynote of the relationship among the various luncheon clubs. We are with you in every undertaking."

William Heathorn, president of the United Commercial Travelers, said: "All the members of my organization are behind the Rotary Club."

Harry Lund, president of the Oakland Advertising Club, said: "I wish to assure the Rotary Club that we stand ready to lend our support to Rotary at all times."

Glady's H. Barnard, president of the Professional Business Women's Club, said: "Our organization began two years ago. We now have 250 members here. If you have need of our organization, call on us."

Viola Richardson, president of the Soroptimist Club, said: "Competition, as represented by the business clubs, means, according to my view, to make of ourselves the best that it is possible for each of us to be."

R. C. Bitterman, president of the Optimist Club, said: "I can only add that it seems that all those who have spoken here, have said what I wished to say."

Dr. Joseph Loran Pease, a member of the Business Development League, brought a message from his club, in place of the president of that organization, who was unable to be present.

EX-PROFESSOR AT U. OF C. OFFERED POST IN ARIZONA

Dr. Rieber Invited to Presidency, But Declines and Will Not Reconsider.

BENKMELEY, March 3.—That Professor Charles H. Rieber, who recently gave up his post as professor of logic at the University of California, was offered the presidency of the University of Arizona some weeks ago became known today. Professor Rieber is declared by his associates at the university to have definitely turned down the overtures of the regents of the Arizona institution and that an invitation from the college officials to visit them was refused. According to his friends his decision in the Arizona matter is final and will not be reconsidered by him despite the fact that he has severed his connections with the California faculty.

Woman to Speak on School Board Rules

The rules and regulations adopted by the board of education will be discussed by Mrs. Georgia Ormsby, member of the board, before the Central Oakland Improvement Club tonight. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of Technical High school at 8 p. m. H. S. Henion, president, will preside. A special program has been arranged by Mrs. Edward Darroux.

Local improvements will be presented to the business meeting for endorsement.

TO IMPROVE STREETS. RICHMOND, March 3.—The city trustees of El Cerrito last night took the first step in improvement of the city's streets, passing a resolution of intention for work on five streets, the entire plan of improvement to cost $30,000. Portions of Everett, Elm, Richmond and Eureka streets will be improved with water macadam pavement, with concrete curbs and gutters. No sidewalks are provided for.

Society Maids and Matrons to Support Ruth St. Denis in Gorgeous Spectacle

A merry group of college girls who will participate tomorrow in "The Vision of Fair Women," the period costume festival to be presented in the Municipal Opera House under the auspices of the Mills Club of Alameda county. From left to right: ANITA RATHBUN, MARGARET BROWN, SARAH LONG, AFTON DILL.

WEDS IN EUREKA. RICHMOND, March 3.—Miss Rena Barlow, formerly of Richmond, was married recently to J. C. Milette at Eureka. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A. F. Barlow and attended school here. The couple will make their home in Eureka.

"The Vision of Fair Women," Mills Club Benefit, to Be Offered Tomorrow.

Details have been perfected for the premiere of "The Vision of Fair Women," the period costume festival which will be presented in the Municipal Opera House tomorrow under the auspices of the Mills Club of Alameda county for the benefit of the Mills College endowment fund.

When the curtain lifts at the Saturday matinee, the 700 local beauties recruited from 12 smart set, women's clubs and colleges will be waiting to depict in tableaux, dance, drama and music the history of feminine fashion from the early Egyptian court to the present day. Gorgeous trappings, exquisite gowns, rare jewels, rich coloring and brilliant lighting are being combined in the spectacular pageant, of which Ruth St. Denis is the director and principal solo dancer.

ROMAN, GREEK, EGYPTIAN. Egyptian, Roman and Greek episodes will be followed by a scene in the Court of Fashion, introducing historic beauties of France, England and Spain. In the number will be:

Madame de Maintenon, Mrs. Herbert Breed; Madame de Pompadour, Dorothy Churchill Hess; Madame Du Barry, Mrs. Joseph Carlston; Marie Antoinette, Mrs. E. Wilder; Empress Josephine, Mrs. Churchhill; Empress Josephine, Mrs. Frank Hunt Proctor; Madame de Sevigne, Mrs. Frank Makinson.

Queen Victoria, Mrs. Joseph Russell Knowland; Isabella of Spain, Mrs. A. W. Fosbury; the Infanta, Bernice Blair; Mary, Queen of Scots, Mrs. Pearl King Tanner.

Ladies of the court will be: Vanuty Enthroned, Minetta Ellen; Butterfly of Fashion, Mrs. Percy Murdoch; Flower of Fashion, Mrs. Frederick Burnham; Mirror of Fashion, Mrs. Frank K. Makinson.

Mrs. Lucile Cavanagh Leimert, impersonating the spirit of Romance, and John Mitchell, impersonating a Gavotte. A scene de ballet will be directed by Virginia Marvin. Alice Marvin will offer the Dance of Carmen, Hedwig Reicher as the Spirit of Drama is cast in this episode. The concluding scene will be heralded by the entrance of Dame Democracy, impersonated by Mrs. Everett J. Brown, and a group of Colonial Dances—Mrs. C. P. Hale, Miss Roma Burnett, Mrs. E. P. Heald. Students of Mills College will dance the Minuet, following which Miss Katharine Edson will offer the Dance of Freedom.

AMERICAN FASHION. American fashion will be marshaled in the following order: The Lady of 1776, Mrs. J. H. Merrill; the Lady of 1800, Mrs. J. Sherman McDowell; the Lady of 1850, Mrs. A. E. Lorber; the Lady of 1900, Mrs. J. M. Sloan; the Girl of Today, Frances Redman Roberts.

Supporting Mrs. Roberts will be a group of modern maidens, representing the charms it takes to make them winning. They are: Elizabeth Magee, Kathleen Maxwell, Flora Edwards, Katherine Armstrong, Janet Knox, Doris Rodolph, Helen Rodolph, Elizabeth Moore, Vera Lewis, Alda Baxter, Gertrude Bosworth, Maud Hind, Mesdames Salem Pohlmann, William Gibbs, Anna Eaton, Lolita Ireland, Jane King, Elena Blackaller.

These hundred Mills students have been cast for the final episode, grouped about Miss Amy Grupe, president of the senior class, as the typical college girl. Freshman, sophomores, juniors and seniors and choir will participate in the numbers, which will be symbolic of various phases of campus life. A college night procession will be introduced. Miss Elizabeth Storer is directing this episode. "The Vision of Fair Women" will be produced at a matinee and evening performance. Tickets, are on sale by Miss Zanette W. Potter, chairman of the Mills clubwomen.

GYPSIES PRACTICE ODD DEATH RITES

NEWARK, N. J., March 2.—Ben Most, chief of the band of gypsies comprising fourteen families, who reside in the Silver Lake section of Belleville, suburb of Newark, has washed, shaved and changed his clothes for the first time in the forty days since his wife died. According to tribal custom, the chief did not wash his face or shave, or change his clothes for that period after her death.

According to tribal custom, he gave a death feast to all the members of the tribe on the thirty-eighth day of the vigil. He appointed his valet to provide all the food, all of which had to be bought, according to the gypsy customs, in lots of odd numbers; that is, an odd number of pounds or pieces.

The lamb was roasted in the chief's back yard, where the feast was served on a legless table, at the head of which on a pedestal sat the chief. The others sat on the ground on straw, and all wept and ate alternately. When the chief at the outset began to weep, the special officer on duty at the front of the house to keep away the curious ran back to investigate. The feast lasted from 3 to 7:30 p. m.

Each guest took home the lighted candle that had been in front of his place at the table, and extinguished it in his bedroom.

MOOSE NAME OFFICERS. RICHMOND, March 3.—Loyal Order of Moose elected officers for the ensuing year at Moose hall last night. They are: O. A. Bennett, dictator; Joe Gardella, vice dictator; J. A. McGinnis, prelate; E. Forwick, trustee; John Alexander, treasurer; Theodore Iverson, treasurer; W. B. Jenkins, past dictator.

The entertainment following election included songs by Maude Rockwell and Roy Patterson. J. A. McGinnis, chairman of the entertainment committee, installation of officers will be held at next Thursday's meeting.

BERLIN TO REFORM. BERLIN, March 4.—Germany may take her first step along the road towards prohibition at the present session of the Reichstag. The government, pointing out the evils of intoxication, is preparing a bill drastically limiting the number of drinking places.

Galena Signal Oil Co. Prepares to Build

RICHMOND, March 3.—Representatives of the Galena Signal Oil company are getting all possible information about construction work here in preparation for building of the big $500,000 refinery plant. Henry Winkler, who is said to be the new manager of the plant, will be in Richmond April 1. It is reported, Charles A. Miller, superintendent of the plant at Franklin, Pa., has returned home after making arrangements for the purchase of and for the refinery from the Standard Oil interests.

The new plant will use raw material from the Standard. The product of refined lubricants is used by both the Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific lines.

PYTHIANS TO DANCE. RICHMOND, March 3.—At the regular meeting of Richmond Temple No. 33, Pythian Sisters, last night a committee report was made on the benefit dance for the Pythian home fund which will be held at Pythian Castle March 10. The committee in charge of the dance includes: Maude Ripley, chairman; Myrtle Lutz, in Hunt, Mae McMaster, Sara Cheney and Rose Parker.

Women's Feet Are Growing Larger

CHICAGO, March 3.—Along with the ballot, wearing of one-piece men's bathing suits, and the "right" to smoke, mildly has "enjoyed" a growth in her feet. It isn't a case of "just looking bigger," but her feet are quite a bit larger in reality than a few years past.

Take this from the thousands of shoe men who are at Chicago attending the annual convention of the National Retail Shoe Association here.

"Women in business are on their feet more than they used to be," declared Budford H. Jones, of Boston, president of the Thompson-Crocker Shoe company, explaining the situation. "At least this is the explanation manufacturers advance."

The shoe men do not believe the boot can do a come-back. The short skirt has done for the boot forever, they believe.

GIRLS TOLD TO DRESS ACCORDING TO CONSCIENCE

Judge Says the Parents Don't Know What Is Best for Children to Wear.

EVANSTON, Ill., Feb. 2.—Girls in deciding what to wear and what not to wear, let conscience be your only guide.

This is the advice of a learned judge—justice of the Peace Max Witkower, of this sedate little town, whose judicial duties have been such as to warrant the statement that what he says on the subject can be accepted as authoritative. Many of this town's important cases affecting ladies' attire he has settled.

"Girls know best what they want to wear and nobody else, not even their fond parents should interfere," said Judge Witkower.

The occasion for his remarks had to do with the case of Elizabeth Poresch, 14 years old, Elizabeth's mother, who had been wearing her stockings, a tucked-up skirt which displayed dimpled knees, powder and rouge, perhaps applied a little too thickly, and her brother's low rubber boots in lieu of galoshes.

Elizabeth crossed the yard to test her get-up on Homer Anderson, an interior decorator.

Anderson's decorative sense was outraged. His remarks shocked Elizabeth, who returned home crying. Her father hurried to Anderson's presence for an explanation. A quarrel ensued which interrupted before Judge Witkower on the charge of disorderly conduct.

"Don't ever interfere with a woman's idea of how to adorn herself, that's her own business," was the judge's parting shot.

CHURCH TO PUT RADIO SETS IN HOMES OF SICK

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 3.—The Rev. Bernard C. Clausen, pastor of the First Baptist church, announced today that radio sets would be established in the homes of every "shut-in" member of the church at the expense of the church. At a test next Sunday night should prove satisfactory. He plans to preach a 15-minute sermon which will be picked up by all stations within a 40-mile radius.

EXTRADITION HELD UP. SAGINAW, Mich., March 3.—Hearing on the request of the authorities of Nebraska for the extradition of A. G. PEDESTRIAN HIT ON SIDEWALK SEEKS $20,000

Asserting that he was struck and knocked down by an automobile while he was walking along the sidewalk, E. J. Fitzgerald, collector for the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, has filed suit for $20,000 damages against E. J. Albertoni, the driver of the car. Fitzgerald says in his complaint that Albertoni lost control of the car, which ran over the curb at Twentieth street and San Pablo avenue, and injured him last November. He says he has been rendered permanently unable to perform his duties as collector as the result of his injuries, which included a fractured leg, head bruises and nervous shock.

JOINT FUND TIED UP IN TAX FIGHT

Whether or not a joint bank account becomes subject to an inheritance tax upon the death of one of the partners to it, is the issue in a suit filed in the superior court by Ray L. Riley, state controller, against Patrick Flynn, Flynn, Riley, state controller, held joint accounts with James J. Cranwell in the Oakland Bank of Savings, the Hibernia bank, the San Francisco Savings and Loan Society, and the Mercantile Trust company, totalling $21,000.

Upon Cranwell's dying intestate last November, this money became the sole property of Flynn. Riley contends that this was in the nature of an inheritance, and asks that the superior court appoint an appraiser to determine what tax should be paid upon it.

INDIA SITUATION CAUSES GROWING ALARM IN LONDON

Extremists Reported More and More Active in Punjab and Bengal Areas.

LONDON, March 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Scattering reports to the newspapers indicate that the situation in India is causing increasing anxiety to the authorities, particularly in the Punjab and the united provinces of Bengal.

There is said to be danger in Bengal that the members of the old revolutionary party will take control of the political movement out of the hands of the nationalist congress party owing to the anger of the extremists at the postponement of civil disobedience.

The Daily Telegraph shows that agitation is growing in all the above named districts, where the situation is getting more and more out of the control of the authorities.

The report of the impending arrest of Mohandas K. Gandhi, non-cooperationist leader, is reiterated.

The Daily Mail says that the Prince of Wales has abandoned his intention to visit Amritsar where, it is recalled, troops fired on agitators April 1919, killing 389 persons. The reason for the alteration in the prince's plans is not stated.

Doctor Charged With Dry Law Violation

STOCKTON, March 3.—Dr. C. L. Six, prominent Stockton physician, and Samuel Cassel and Thomas F. Gleason, both druggists, were arrested by prohibition agents here charged with violation of the national prohibition law. The particular charge against Dr. Six is issuing irregular prescriptions. Gleason is charged with selling Dr. Six and Cassel were released on $2000 bond, that of Gleason being fixed at $1000.

U. S. DRYDOCKS FOR SALE. WASHINGTON, March 3.—Thirteen of the Shipping Board's drydocks located on the Atlantic seaboard and the Gulf have been turned over to Vice-President Farley to be sold. The drydocks cost the board about $900,000 each, and President Powell of the Emergency Fleet corporation in announcing that they were for sale said they should bring about $300,000 each.

Spanish Blockade In Morocco Doubled

MADRID, March 3.—Doubt was expressed here today whether the blockade of the Moroccan region of Alhucemas by the Spanish forces had actually begun as reported in Moroccan messages yesterday, official confirmation of the reports still being lacking.

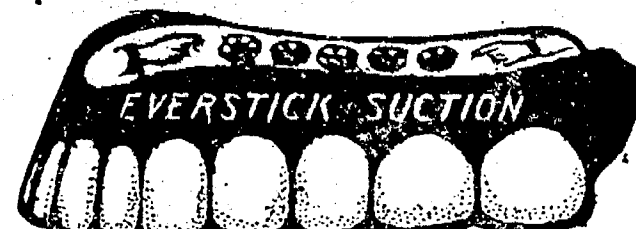

The expiration of Spain's ultimatum to Abd-El-Krim, the Moroccan rebel chieftain, demanding the release of the Spanish prisoners, was generally supposed to have been reached, but some doubt has arisen as to whether the document conveyed to Abd-El-Krim by Dr. Casas, the Spanish army surgeon, bore in fact a definite time for the release.

Southern District Dry Agent Quits

LOS ANGELES, March 3.—Robert C. Avery, agent in charge of prohibition enforcement in Southern California, has resigned, and will be succeeded by F. A. Hazeltine, formerly prohibition enforcement agent for the State of Washington. It was announced last night by Avery. The letter stated he had tendered his resignation several days ago and that it had been accepted by Commissioner Hayner, in Washington, D. C.

Invitations Out for Tea In Berkeley

One hundred invitations have been sent out for a tea which Mrs. Victor H. Pess will give at her home in Russell street, Berkeley Friday afternoon, March 10. Mrs. Pess will have as her guest of honor Miss Doris Rodolph, whose marriage to Harold Havre will take place the 23rd of next month. Following the Lenten season several other affairs will be given before the nuptial date arrives. Mrs. Pess has asked to assist her in receiving Mrs. Ross Mahon and Miss Ruth Landon. Miss Elizabeth Moore, Miss Flora Edwards, Miss Elizabeth Kruse and Miss Janet Knox.

At the home of Mrs. Hubert Everard Hunt in Claremont, Miss Everard Hunt and Miss Mildred Dodge will be the hosts at tea for a group of friends whom she has bidden to next at the home of Mrs. Allan Stroud (Anna Dodge) March 11. Their home is one of the attractive residences in The Uplands. One hundred and fifty will be guests.

Three days were spent in New Orleans by Mrs. George Jenson and Mrs. Ralph Madison Jones, who left for a two months' trip to Palm Beach, Florida, where they will enjoy the fashionable resort at the height of its season. They are due to arrive Saturday at Palm Beach.

BETROTHAL IS ANNOUNCED

The betrothal of Miss Beth Ward of Los Angeles and Raymond T. Morris of Alameda became known today to a group of their intimate friends. Miss Ward, a former student at the California School of Arts and Crafts, in Berkeley, will arrive tomorrow from the south with her mother, Mrs. H. C. Ward, and two sisters, to be guests at the Hotel Oakland. They will spend two months in the bay section and following the Lenten season a number of affairs will be given for the bride-elect before her departure for her home in the south. The wedding will take place in September.

Raymond Morris is a son of the late John E. Morris and Mrs. Morris of Alameda. He is a brother of Miss Genevieve Morris and of Herbert and John Morris. He is a member of one of the pioneer families of this city and is a San Francisco business man.

Miss Ada Gray of this city will be hostess at an informal bridge tea March 18, at her home in Hillside avenue.

Mrs. John Bradburn MacInlay has as her house guest her sister-in-law, Miss Anna MacInlay of Santa MRS. GEORGE CUNNINGHAM who, before her marriage last evening, was Miss Helen Hamby of Berkeley. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham are on their wedding trip and when they return they will reside here.—Boye photo.

Matilda Brown, president of the Ladies' Relief, is to be present and address the Juniors in their lines of work to be carried out this year. Due to the work of the Juniors, "The Farm," as the children's home is known, has had many improvements, especially in the nursery, where the younger children are domiciled.

LEAVE FOR THE SOUTH
Mr. and Mrs. Walton Norwood Moore and their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Moore, will leave Sunday for southern California, going as far south as Coronado on their motor trip, which will extend over a fortnight.

The Corner Club members are established in their new home at 1741 Broadway, last Tuesday evening. The first betrothal announcement was made; that of Miss Viola Melvig to Chester E. Dix.

LENTEN LECTURES TO BE GIVEN
Miss Jane Seymour Klink has announced a course of lectures for the Lenten period to be given at the Hotel Oakland Wednesday mornings at 10:45 o'clock. In the first of the series will be the following subjects: "Moses, the Statesman," March 8; "The Wonder of Solomon's Reign," March 15; "Satan in Literature—Milton, Goethe and Voltaire, the Book of Job."

The marriage of Miss Lydia Fogg and Bayard Alexander Freed will take place this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Fogg on Santa Rey avenue. Mrs. Harold Fogg will be her sister's matron of honor and the four bridesmaids the Misses Helen Hayes, Virginia Wise and Isabelle and Edna Sisley. A reception and wedding supper will follow the ceremony.

ORIENTAL TEA AT CLUBHOUSE
The College Woman's clubhouse, 2542 Bancroft way, is to be the setting of a benefit Oriental tea the afternoon of March 9 from 4 to 6 o'clock, when Mrs. George Maxwell will exhibit with Mr. McKeown many lovely works of art from the Orient. McKeown has adapted the art of Chinese carving to furniture. Mrs. Eva Gruninger Atkinson, singer, will contribute to the pleasure of the afternoon with Mrs. Maxwell. Two special numbers will be rendered by Chinese maidens upon their native instruments. Mrs. David Prescott Barrows will read the receiving line, and Mrs. R. R. Woolsey is chairman of the afternoon.

Barbara. Since her marriage Mrs. MacInlay, who was Miss Ruth Kroll of Piedmont, has made her home across the bay.
The last of the Junior Assemblies, which about thirty of the high school set have formed, will be held this evening in the ball room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Letts Oliver. Patronesses of the series are Mrs. Henry Nichols, Mrs. Quincy Chase, Mrs. Frederick Sherman and Mrs. Edwin Letts Oliver.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY TO HAVE TEA
The Junior Auxiliary of the Ladies' Relief is to be increased in membership and to this end the directors of the auxiliary are to give a large tea the afternoon of March 13. Miss

Scholarship Fund Aids High Students

By EDNA B. KINARD.

When a student graduates from technical high school—then what? The Parent-Teacher Association declares "College—if the boys and girls want it."

But there are many lads and lasses who must close their books when the high school diploma is won because the family purse will not stand the strain of four years in the university. Here is where the scholarship fund of the club which unites mothers, fathers and teachers in an invincible trinity, because the determining factor, funds have been piling up to give at least some of the most brilliant of these students their opportunity for higher education. Faculty members familiar with the class room records will be given the privilege of naming those who will receive the financing, which will supplement their own resources. The Parent-Teacher Association will consent itself with the knowledge that its work is done, but will never ask the identity of the boy or girl for whom the members are making dreams possible.

For the benefit of this scholarship fund which is needing boosting a large card party is being arranged for Tuesday, March 14, at the residence of Mrs. Fred Diehl, 3422 West street. Mrs. Diehl and Mrs. N. L. Cohen, the hostesses.

Students whose high school days are closing are registered at the association, the continuation of their studies through the philanthropy fund which looks out after the boys and girls registered at Tech. Again, the donors do not know the name of those whom they help, placing the work within the province of one of their number.

One lad of a family of twelve, is the debtor to the association for the clothes which makes him appear respectable among his mates, the car fare which assures his presence in the class room and a substantial meal at noon which is contributing to his health.

Who will join this organization of mothers and fathers and teachers which is practicing what they preach? They need members and the support which comes from interest. A membership campaign will come to a conclusion on March 10.

when the H. C. Capwell cup will be awarded by Oakland Federation to the club showing the largest percentage gain in members. Technical Association is out after it. The leaders think that with a few more fathers coming in, the cup may be within reach.

The Speech Arts Association of California will meet in Sorosis clubhouse, San Francisco, tomorrow when Miss Marie Withrow will give the address of the program on "Diction." Mrs. Ralph Waldo Trine will be the reader of the day. A business meeting is called for 2:30 p. m. Many will cross the bay for the program.

The hiking section of the College Women's club will meet at the Claremont hotel tomorrow, with a trip on the old Fish Ranch road in prospect. Miss Elizabeth Kelley is registering the members and guests who will join the little journey.

Newly elected officers of the Woman's Improvement club in Pleasanton will be installed at impressive exercises which are being arranged for Tuesday, March 14. The directors who were elected this week are: President, Mrs. A. K. Zwiler; vice president, Mrs. C. Smallwood; recording secretary, Mrs. E. Hartzell; financial secretary, Miss I. Sulz; treasurer, Mrs. A. R. Pickard; auditor, Mrs. C. S. Graham.

The sum of $178.50 has been appropriated for a new set of swings for the school playgrounds.

The Hill club members will go to Alameda on Monday to accept the hospitality of Mrs. R. H. Grey, 1515 Fernside avenue. An interesting program is being arranged. Mrs. George Hildebrand and Mrs. J. F. Farrell were hostesses last week.

The pros and cons of the bonus bill were discussed today by the living issues section of Ebell. Those who participated in the informal debate were Mrs. H. C. Morris, Mrs. C. F. Rillet, Mrs. M. de L. Hadley, Mrs. J. V. Toland. What Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, is doing was reviewed by Mrs. R. H. Kessler. Mrs. E. B. de Golia reviewed the current events of the week.

Pasadena's new stadium will have a seating capacity of 65,000 persons.

COURT DAY IN KENTUCKY GETS JOLT BY COURT

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 3.—"Court Day," a century old institution in Kentucky, has suffered a painful jolt here. The Circuit Court through an abatement order has taken away from it "Cheap-side," a public square in the center of the business district, where farmers and traders for miles around gathered in numbers on the second Monday in each month to swap horses and to trade anything from harness to homes.

And now, for the first time in more than 100 years, they are not permitted to meet in the historic old square, of late years within the sight of the town clock in the courthouse tower, but have been shunted to another and less desirable street.

Gen. Pershing Urges Army of 150,000

WASHINGTON, March 3.—(By International News Service.)—General John J. Pershing sought the aid of President Harding today to prevent congress from carrying out its announced intention of cutting the regular army to 115,000 men. General Pershing believes that the regular army should not be cut to a lower authorized strength than 150,000 and he so informed the president at a conference at the White House.

UNIFORM SCHOOL DRESS.
ST. LOUIS, March 3.—Recommendation for a uniform dress for high school girls has been adopted by the Women's Chamber of Commerce, representing 72 local organizations.

The facts, so far as they are known, about the mysterious personality of Robin Hood will be told in next Sunday's TRIBUNE Magazine, one of the series under the heading "History's Mysteries."

IS YOUR CHILD SICK AND AILING?

Give It Gude's Pepto-Mangan
—For Thirty Years Doctors' Favorite Tonic.

Children that grow too fast and play too hard or perhaps work too hard at school (oh, yes, some children do work hard at school) become pale and a little run-down, and then mothers and fathers become worried about them. The youngsters do not eat with their usual big appetites, and so they become thin and tire out easily. There is a simple and good remedy for this. It is Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the tonic rich in a certain form of iron that is readily absorbed by the system. Gude's Pepto-Mangan will soon put the color back into the children's cheeks and give them the kind of an appetite every mother loves to see. It is sold by druggists in two "liquid and tablet" forms. It is absolutely safe to give to any child. Ask your home doctor what he thinks about Gude's Pepto-Mangan.—Advertisement.

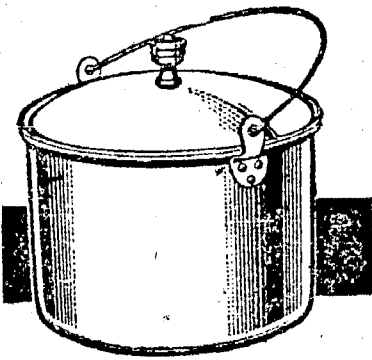

Women Men Admire

Men admire a pretty face, a good figure, but more than all a buoyant disposition and the charm of happy content. There is no question but what a light-hearted woman is the joy of a man's life, but no woman can be happy and joyful when dragged down by the ailments that so often develop headaches, backache, nervousness and "the blues." We are continually publishing in this paper letters from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after doctors and other medicines have failed to help them. If you are ill why not give it a trial?—Advertisement.

USE SULPHUR TO HEAL YOUR SKIN

Broken Out Skin and Itching
Eczema Helped Over Night

For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment. declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Mento-Sulphur and improvement shows next day. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Mento-Sulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up. Get a small jar from any good drugist and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

MY FAVORITE STORIES by

IRVIN S. COBB

Speaking of Carrier Pigeons

Speaking of carrier pigeons—although no one has done so lately—reminds me of a yarn that may or may not be true—it sounds almost too good to be true—that was related at the front in 1918. The version most frequently told had it that a half company of a regiment in the Rainbow Division, on going forward early one morning in a heavy fog for a raid across No man's Land, carried along with the rest of the customary equipment a homing pigeon. The pigeon in its wicker cage swung on the arm of a private, who likewise was burdened with his rifle, his extra rounds of ammunition, his trenching tool, his pair of wire cutters, his steel helmet, his gas mask, his emergency ration and quite a number of other more or less cumbersome items.

It was to be a surprise attack behind a cloak of the fog, so there was no artillery preparation beforehand, nor barrage fire as the squads climbed over the top and advanced into the mist hidden beyond. Behind, in the posts of observation and in the post of command—"P. O." and "P. C." those were called in the algebraic terminology of the war—the colonel and his aides and his intelligence officers waited for the sound of firing. When after some minutes the distant rattle of the rifle fire came to their ears they began calculating how long reasonably it might be before word reached them by one or another medium of communication touching on the results of foray. But the ground telephone remained mute, and no runner returned through the fog with tidings. The suspense increased as time passed.

Suddenly a pigeon sped into view, flying close to the earth. With eager eyes following it in its course the winged messenger circled until it located its portable cote just behind the colonel's position and fluttering down it entered its familiar shelter.

An athletic member of the staff hustled up the ladder. In half a minute he was tumbling down again, clutching in one hand the little scroll of paper that he had found fastened about the pigeon's leg. With fingers that trembled in anxiety the colonel unrolled the paper and read aloud what was written upon it.

What he read, in the hurried chirography of a kid private, was the following succinct statement: "I'm tired of carrying this damn bird."

CHINESE CIVIL SERVICE.

Witter Bynner says that one of the qualifications for holding an office in China is ability to write poetry. In China the one who makes the country's laws must also be able to make its songs. In this country it would seem that many of the laws could be improved by the fellows who write the popular lyrics.

Since we are fated eventually to do everything the Chinese have done or are doing, why not do it now? How much more interesting life would be in this country if our public officials performed their duties metrically and in pleasing lyrics. For instance, instead of getting the typical brutal announcement when your income tax payment is due, you would get this touching little quatrain from the Internal Revenue Office:

"Roses are red,
Violets are blue;
Kick in, old boy,
Your tax is due."

And how much it would add to the grace of living if judges were poets:

"I don't approve of your evil ways,
Two hundred dollars and ninety days."

Or if the motorcycle policeman hailed you with:

"You are going too fast! You hadn't ort!
Here's a summons to the Speeders' Court!"

How much more poetic would be the marriage service:

"Take this woman,
Take this man,
Try to be happy
If you can."

And if decrees for divorces were handed down in this fashion:

"Two by two,
Please don't crowd!
Now you're divorced,
DON'T CHEER SO LOUD!"

Chapel Is Planned Like Colonial House

CHICAGO, March 3.—An old colonial meeting house—the First Congregational church of Lyme, Conn., is to be reproduced at Area, Ill., 30 miles from Chicago, as a Catholic church. It is to be the chapel of the new Catholic university, St. Mary of the Lake.

"We are not appropriating anything from the colonial architects, but are merely taking back our own," Joseph W. McCarthy, designer of the university, said when asked to explain the choice of the Connecticut meeting house as a model for a Catholic church. "The Adams brothers brought the colonial, or strictly speaking, Georgian style to England from Rome, and the Romans got it from the Greeks."

Dancing Students To Give Exhibition

STARLIGHT

by Idah McGlone Gibson

Virginia Fairfax, an orphan, rebel, shopping tour. A callow youth made advances. She appeared on a police man, who got her a taxi to a large department store. Virginia purchased a stunning new suit, hat, shoes and stockings in Chicago and was a picture when the train pulled out for California. Virginia learns that a young married couple in the seat in front of her are a route for Hollywood and the movies. The bride had been a chorus girl—her husband a newspaper man. Virginia overheard their conversation and is shocked to learn that these are dangers in Illinois just as there are on the stage. In the dinner with Mrs. Watkins Virginia was greatly interested in seeing Lord Beauchamp, a titled Englishman, the first she had ever seen. His party was rather large and one of them called his attention to Virginia. Virginia, frightened almost to tears, reached California and a big hotel. She registered just below Lord Beauchamp's party and was shown to a small room. Her fear and terror swept over her as she realized her utter loneliness.

PREPARING FOR A CAREER.

Giving myself no more time to worry over my situation, I turned on the water for a bath. I arranged my toilet articles on top of the dresser, unpacked my clothes, meantime wishing that I had brought none of them, as I knew now that they were neither stylish nor suitable. Upon emerging from my bath I appreciated for the first time in my life that old saying that "Cleanliness is next to Godliness." I also understood how comfort of body retarded one's spirits. I was ready to meet the world. I took my courage in my hand, after my mirror had told me that I was looking very well, and took the elevator down to the lobby.

"I had not dared ask the man behind the counter what I was paying for my room. I had learned from Mrs. Watkins in Chicago that at the big American hotels one paid for one's meals and room separately. "I thought, remembering the clothes I had just unpacked and realizing that I would probably have to buy an entirely new wardrobe. "Where is the dining room?" I asked the elevator man.

"Just around to the left," he answered.

I stood in the doorway a moment as the head waiter came forward and asked: "Are you alone, Miss?"

"Yes."

He seated me at a little table by the side of the wall upon a little kind of a balcony. Very near me was Lord Beauchamp and his party. It was all I could do to keep from bowing because they were the only faces that I had recognized since I had arrived in Los Angeles.

The prices on the menu frightened me, but I decided I could afford a

London Workshops Bar Chinese Students

LONDON, March 3.—Chinese students in England are complaining that British manufacturers are chary of admitting them to their workshops, according to S. H. Tan, ex-secretary of the London Chinese Students' Association. He contrasts this attitude with the practice in the United States and France, where, he says, every opportunity is given to Chinese students to combine work and study.

First secretary Chu Chao Hsin of the Chinese embassy in London has made some pointed remarks in regard to the attitude of many English people toward China. He said that so-called friends of China sometimes remark "the most interesting thing would be to find out how to open up China."

"I would like some pictures." "Won't you sit here, please?" She showed me a number of different styles of photographs. "These are forty dollars a dozen, these fifty and these sixty." "Haven't you any cheaper than these?" "I shall probably want a good many." "Do you wish them for professional purposes?" We have a professional rate." "I wasn't quite sure if I was getting them under false pretenses when I said: "Yes, I want the professional rate." "Then you will want three or four poses at least. You had better make an appointment and come tomorrow. We furnish this size picture, unmounted, on this paper to professionals for forty dollars a hundred with six poses." Even that seemed a great deal to me, but I supposed it was all right and I made the appointment for the next morning.

"You had better bring two or three changes of costume," said the young woman. "A street suit, an evening gown, riding clothes and sport clothes and anything else you think would look well in pictures. The suit you have on will do very nicely for the street costume."

"How long will it be before I can have them?"

"Oh, about a week."

"But I must have them before that."

"Well, there is a possibility of getting them in four days, but I cannot promise them under a week."

Coming out from the photograph gallery, I passed a number of beautiful shops and seeing some sport suits in one of the windows I entered—and was lost. For the rest of the afternoon I reveled in clothes. It was only when I came to pay my bill that I came out of my dream of happiness.

There is a psychology about clothes that is most comforting. I have always had a great sympathy for the girl who said: "There is comfort in being well-dressed that religion cannot give." And so I assuaged my conscience—which told me that I was being very extravagant—by saying that I was only investing in my stock in trade.

CRIME CONFESSED BY 'DEAD' SLAYER, DOCTOR ASSERTS

Church Breaks Five Weeks' Silence Few Hours Before Time of Execution.

State Supreme Court have said their final negative to all pleas for clemency.

Late last night Church's sister, Isabel, entered his cell. She knelt by the cot and held the head of her brother's once powerful body in her arms, crooning words of love and pleading as she might have pleaded with a child that he speak or give some sign of recognition. She wept away without a sign from her brother that he heard her agonized cry.

A little later two nuns called at the jail. For a while they knelt and prayed. Church again gave sign that he was conscious of their presence.

UNABLE TO SAY FAREWELL TO PARENTS.

AT URBAN PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Harvey Church, who hangs at 4 p. m. today, was unable to say farewell to his father and mother, who visited him in his cell at noon. The convicted man recognized the aged parents as they stood over his cot. He raised up to a sitting posture and his lips seemed to form the word "Goodbye," but no sound came forth. He then fell back, relapsing into his condition of coma. Physicians who examined him again believed he realized his doom was sealed.

As the physicians examined Church they believed he murmured "mother" and "father," but they were not certain.

"Church made sounds, but they were not intelligible," said D. F. Bartel, his attorney.

"We thought he might be asking for his parents and sent for them."

Mr. and Mrs. Church, accompanied by their daughter, arrived at the jail within a few minutes. Before being taken to the cell they were informed that there was no further hope of saving Church's life.

"We have played our last legal card," Attorney Bartel told them. "We haven't another chance."

The aged parents, resigned to the fate which their son must meet, bore up bravely as they were escorted to the cell.

The prisoner seemed to brighten up when his parents entered. He tried to talk, but could not.

"Some of him lives," said most of him is already dead," Bartel said.

CHICAGO, March 3.—(By the Associated Press).—After lying on his back for forty days without opening his eyes or uttering a word, Harvey Church today broke his silence five hours before he was scheduled to be hanged for the brutal murder of Bernard Daugherty and Carl Adams, automobile salesmen, whom he beat to death to obtain a car to "show off" in his home town of Adams, Wis. A plea from his mother caused Church to speak.

"FATHER, MOTHER—YES," LOWLY UNDERSTOOD.

"Your father and mother are here, Harvey," Warden Westbrook told the convicted man. "Your mother begs you to talk to her—and you have only five more hours to live. Will you talk to them?"

The youthful murderer, whose twitching eyelids have been the only outward sign of life during his self-imposed period of silence, turned over on one side and hummed.

"What did you say?" asked the warden, leaning over the prisoner.

"Father and mother—yes," came back in low, but plainly understood, words.

During the visit of his parents Church gave no further heed to their pleas that he talk. His mother, almost too weak to walk, was assisted to his bedside.

PARENTS' PLEAS FOR WOULD PROVE FUTILE.

"Harvey, won't you speak to your mother?" she said, but there was no

Styles for Spring Settle Disputed Length of Skirt

The length of midday's skirt this spring and summer is to be correct for a host of designers and creators have at last settled upon the proper length. If midday is of short stature her skirt must be no more nor less than ten inches from the ground, and if medium height the hem of the skirt should be approximately twelve and a half inches from terra firma. But if midday is more than five feet, five inches tall, her skirt may be worn fifteen inches from the ground, but no more.

All of which is brought out in the latest shipment of spring fashions received by Manheim & Mazor direct from Paris and the fashion centers of the east.

To all the colors of the rainbow will be displayed in women's wearing apparel this spring and summer, while the sleeves of midday's dress will govern the fashion of the dress itself. Not since the discovery of dye has color had so much to do with the making of women's wear as it will this spring.

BECOMING STYLES.

Personally, attractiveness and the unusual are all embodied in these latest fashions, which have been selected to meet the average purse. Every effort has been put forth to secure the article that will be most becoming to midday, for at this age and age men, as never before, are taking more interest in women's wear. The new line of fashions are made in four principal shades—beige, white, blue and gray, and are worn with black and soft colored shoes and slippers.

Half of the style of the dress this year will be in the sleeve line. In the old style, the fitted sleeve and the puff sleeve, Tweed suits are the newest thing of the year in women's wear. The colors are orchid, lipstick and peach, to be worn with blouses of high shades.

Every article selected by Mazor is suggestive of personality, and made to fit character as well as form. A new idea in the creation of women's wear. There are capes direct from Paris and the eastern fashion shows that embody all the latest creations of the Parisian dressmaker, and sport a variety of styles. The new fashions, the variety of which has never before been excelled in numbers and color, is extended also to children.

Play-dresses are different from last year's, carrying with them an attractiveness which is discernible from their simplicity by the pleasing colors. Color again rules the newest creations in organdies and silhouettes.

Prinwickle is a new blue that has promise for a new creation. The latest thing in red is "lipstick," which is used to considerable extent in the sport skirts. A riot of colored sweaters awaits midday's choice to be worn with the new sport skirt. The skirts are of the color that might be called sign from the motionless prisoner that she heard.

His father kissed him twice and begged him to speak, but his pleas were of no avail. Church also remained silent during the visit of his sister and his attorneys.

As his sister was leaving the cell he muttered, "Sister, sister," but then again became silent.

"TELL ME ABOUT IT, SO THEY WON'T HANG YOU."

Mrs. Church collapsed, falling across her son's bed, saying, "Harvey, my boy, speak to me; tell me about it, so they won't hang you."

There was no response and Mrs. Church was carried from the cell.

Previous to his visit from his parents the two months' growth of beard was shaved from Church's face and he was given a new suit of pajamas.

For breakfast he was given the white of three eggs, one-half pint of beef juice and one pint of milk, all administered through a tube. The jail physician in a bulletin reported his temperature as 99.2, his pulse 70 and his color good. He has been his condition for several weeks.

gaudy, but their creation has been so carefully studied that it is as graceful as the eye and suggestive of the purpose for which they were created.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

The millinery department of Manheim & Mazor has also been augmented with a complete new stock of the latest style hats direct from the millinery centers of Europe and the east, from which it is possible to fit any type of woman.

The dresses embody two distinct silhouettes, the long straight line, and light bodices with full skirts, which are just a bit longer than those of the styles seen on the streets. The length of the new skirt is described by its creators as "midday."

Peculiar embroideries from Europe are common on many of the new style models, with trimmings of tulle. Brown this year will be as popular as navy blue for tulle dresses, the designers of styles say. Dozens of new and old ideas are used in the crepe creations. Canton crepe is steadily becoming more popular.

The wraps and capes are distinctly different from the old. Rough blanket plaids are common in the new styles, and a color has made its way against all the predictions of the creators of five years ago that plain material would always be used in the creation of women's wraps.

WIDOW SLAIN BY CRIPPLED YOUTH, WHO KILLS SELF

Double Tragedy Follows Late Visit to Home of Wealthy Woman.

SACRAMENTO, March 3.—Mrs. Emma Rust, 38, a wealthy widow of this city, was shot and killed last night by Earl Clark, 26, a crippled elevator operator, according to police. After firing into the woman's body Clark went to a rear bedroom and sent a bullet through his own brain.

According to the story told the police by Mary Doris, 10-year-old niece of the woman, Clark visited the Rust home frequently in company with his mother and had been drinking when he went to the house last night.

Clark, who is a cripple, was shot in the head, and died instantly. Mrs. Rust staggered and fell. He then went to the rear of the house and returning a moment later fired a second shot into the prostrate body.

In the hour following the shooting the police found Clark in the home of a neighbor next door. When they returned with the police a few minutes later Clark was found dead in the bedroom.

Mrs. Rust admitted Clark only after protest, the girl said, and continually pleaded with him to go, telling him he was intoxicated. A few minutes before midnight the child heard a struggle, followed by her aunt trying to call some one on the telephone. A shot rang out and a few minutes later Clark entered the bedroom. He turned back to the door and said: "I'll shoot off another firecracker."

Terrified, the girl climbed out of the bedroom window and ran to the home of a neighbor, who called the police. She had hardly left the house, she said, when Clark fired the shot which ended his own life.

Mrs. Rust was the widow of E. Charles Rust, for many years proprietor of the Hotel Mann of this city. Her only known relative is E. A. Miller, a brother, who owns a ranch near Isleton.

Little is known of Clark other than evidence given by a taxi driver. Clark, who was about 25 years of age, was a cripple and had been paralyzed and walked with the aid of crutches.

Lloyd George Wins Over Tory Leaders

By ED L. KEEN, United Press Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, March 3.—Lloyd George has weathered another political crisis. "Diehards" in the Unionist ranks, who would have opposed his resignation of the premier or a general election, were checked by leaders of the Conservative party at stormy meetings which lasted until early today.

Arthur Balfour is understood to have used his influence, heightened by his achievements at Washington, to aid Lloyd George.

A group of Conservatives under Lord Curzon sought to bring about a return to party politics by attacking Lloyd George at the present moment, when, due to conditions in Ireland, the postponement of the General Election and other internal difficulties he is not overly strong.

The prime minister threatened to resign under their attacks unless the Conservative party gave him a quasi vote of confidence.

An announcement at Oxford university tonight by Austen Chamberlain, leader of the Unionists, was expected to declare the party's confidence in the premier.

Wales Prince Shot, Says London Rumor

LONDON, March 3.—(By Associated Press).—The Evening News today publishes what it characterizes as "an absurd rumor" which is being persistently repeated in London, that the Prince of Wales was shot in India. Officials here know nothing of any such incident. The latest report from India says the prince left Satwari today for Peshawar.

Despatches from India February 24 reported that members of the Prince of Wales party had been fired upon while motorizing from Delhi to Puthalla. An India officer's version of the incident later, however, declared that although one of the motor cars had been hit by a bullet, the bullet was not a bullet, but a stone.

Two Scows Full of Booze Seized in N. Y.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Two scows full of bottles of whisky of a brand popular in pre-Volstead days were seized today in Westchester creek, off One Hundred and Seventy-seventh street, the seven men composing the crew being placed under arrest. Inspector George C. Liebold declared his belief that the liquor had been smuggled on steamships from Cuba.

Three patrol wagons, working in relays, transported the several thousand bottles in burlap bags to the Westchester Police station.

Trucks and automobiles to the wharf at an early hour and an unusual number of lights on the scows aroused police suspicions and led to the seizure.

France Will Pay Debt to America

PARIS, March 3.—(By International News Service).—Statements that France will not pay her financial debt to the United States were repudiated in official quarters today. It is understood, however, that France will not make any steps toward payment until the American government sends a note upon the subject.

France would then reply recognizing the debt as legal, but taking the signed treaty as a basis. It is considered in the light of an isolated issue. France will assume the attitude that the debt must be considered in relation with the entire subject of war indemnities and that France will, if able, pay her obligations to the United States after Germany has fulfilled her indemnity obligations.

THEFT SUSPECT SHOT; NEAR DEATH

CRUICKETT, March 3.—John Rasmus is in the county hospital at Martinez today suffering from two bullet wounds from which it is believed he will die. He is believed to have received the wounds in a pistol duel with Joe Quilece, at this place, last night.

Quilece told the authorities that he had shot Rasmus when Rasmus fired several shots in an attempt to get away from him during a robbery.

One of the shots penetrated Rasmus' right shoulder. Both bullets tore through the man's body, coming out of his back near the kidneys.

Carlo Pia, another Italian, told the police that he was sitting in a poolroom at Cruickett last night when Rasmus entered and tried to sell some wearing apparel. He said he recognized some of the articles of clothing as his own.

It is said that, on investigation, it was found that Pia's and Quilece's rooms had been robbed.

Quilece followed Rasmus to the railroad station and told him to remain there while Pia summoned Constable J. J. Fox. When the officer arrived the shooting had taken place.

Quilece is being held for questioning, but is not under arrest. The duel is believed to have taken place as described by Quilece.

League Asks Married Women to Quit Jobs

ALAMEDA, March 3.—The members of the Alameda League of Women have taken themselves on record as being against married women working when their husbands are making good wages. A formal resolution bearing the objection of the women was drawn up yesterday for presentation to the Alameda, Oakland and San Francisco Chambers of Commerce. The resolution was signed by Mrs. Harry O. Tenney, president; Mrs. Emma C. Burville, vice-president, and Mrs. N. Nottebohm, secretary.

"There are too many men in need of jobs to support their families, and too many women who need every penny to permit married women whose husbands are drawing good salaries to work," states Mrs. Tenney. "We are going to request the employers to co-operate in determining the status of the women employed by them with the request that in the cases of those who do not have to work that their places be filled by women who do."

Forced to Sleep in Cellar, Wife Says

In a divorce suit filed today against Joseph Crudo, San Francisco insurance broker, Mrs. Alice Crudo declares that on many occasions he locked her out of their home at night and compelled her to sleep in the basement or in the garage.

Once, she says, she found padlocks on the doors, and after giving her a severe beating when she tried to enter, her husband kept her locked out for a month.

GORGEOUS MARDI GRAS PLANNED BY AAHMES TEMPLE

Shriners of Oakland Announce Brilliant Spectacle for Entertainment Fund.

A Mardi Gras conceived and developed along distinctive lines and embodying unusual entertainment and educational features will be given in the Municipal Auditorium by Ahmes Temple Shriners of Oakland, from Monday, April 24, until Saturday, April 29, it was announced today by a committee of Shriners in charge of the event.

It is expected that 250,000 Shriners and their families from all parts of the United States, Canada, Mexico, Honolulu, Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands will attend the Shriners Imperial Council to be held in San Francisco next June, and Shriners organizations will be there, are preparing lavishly to entertain the visitors. Ahmes Temple plans to devote the proceeds derived from the Mardi Gras to this purpose.

ONE BIG HIPPODROME.

Under plans already adopted by the Ahmes committee, the Mardi Gras will be made notable by dances, contests, circus and professional vaudeville acts, pageants, clowns, trained animals, day and night carnival and other attractions.

Particular attention will be paid to an elaborate color scheme in erecting the Mardi Gras and exposition sections of the Auditorium and to the decorative adjuncts. This phase of the Mardi Gras will be put under the supervision of known experts.

Ahmes Temple will present in its Shriners Mardi Gras week something distinctive and impressive for those who seek entertainment, or who are interested in industrial progress," says the announcement issued by the Shrine committee today.

"The term 'Mardi Gras' signifies to the Ahmes committee a period of intensive enjoyment in which many forms of entertainment may be incorporated. In New Orleans it takes the form of elaborate parades and mask or costume balls. In Tampa, Fla., industrial and agricultural features are added. We intend our Mardi Gras to incorporate the best entertainment and educational features of both."

INDUSTRIAL DIVISION.

The immense lobby of the Auditorium will be turned into an exhibit of the Shriners' Mardi Gras week, according to the committee. A large number of space reservations have been applied for in advance of the official announcement of the week.

Four Inquests to Be Held Tomorrow

Four inquests will be held tomorrow afternoon by Coroner Grant D. Miller. They are in connection with the deaths of Aurelio Medo, 40 years old, 3385 Boyd avenue, Horace Russell, Portland, Ore., S. M. Wilber, of Redwood City, and J. N. Douglas, 472 Eighth street.

The Medo boy died as the result of injuries he received when he was struck by an automobile in front of his home, Wilber and Douglas, the police say, committed suicide. The fourth man, Russell, was found floating in the estuary at the foot of Fourteenth avenue.

Two Wounded in Fight on Burglars

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Ernest Bagwell of 426 1/2 Tehama street was attacked by two men who in addition to his wounds, were attempted to rob him early today. He was severely beaten as was also if Barry, who went to his aid. Together they succeeded in fighting off their assailants.

Bagwell was struck with a blackjack and cried for help. Barry, who lives next door, responded. Bagwell suffered lacerations of the eye and neck and Barry was cut and bruised. Both went to the Central Emergency hospital.

ALLEGED REDS PROTEST LONGER WAIT FOR TRIAL

J. C. Reed and J. A. Bagsdale, charged with criminal syndicalism, today protested to the court against having their trials postponed again and again since they came up for hearing. Both men are at liberty on bonds and were called into court today to have their trials set. The case was continued until March 16.

"I wish to protest against this sort of travesty," said Reed. "I have been under one kind of indictment or another for over two years and have spent a large part of my time coming into court to have the case again and again continued."

"I am either guilty or not guilty and I wish to have it decided. I have to work for a living and am seriously hampered in doing so by the red tape and delay in getting to trial."

Ragsdale declared his experiences had been the same as Reed's and his views were the same.

MISSING MONEY OF SEAMEN CAUSE OF DEATH INQUIRY

$30,000 in Cash and Liberty Bonds Sought; Fatal Fall of Custodian Probed.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—The mysterious disappearance from banks and safe deposit vaults of $30,000 in cash and Liberty bonds, the property of the Master Mates and Pilots of the Pacific, has started an investigation into the affairs and manner of death of Captain Charles J. Swanson, trustee and secretary of the organization.

Captain Swanson was killed in an elevator drop in his ship's and sailors' supply store at 35 Steuart street on Sunday. The possibility that he may have committed suicide instead of falling down the shaft to his death, as was indicated, is being investigated by the authorities.

For twelve years Captain Swanson had been in charge of the dues and benefits of the Master Mates and Pilots of the Pacific. There was supposed to be on deposit, according to the secretary, Captain W. H. Stark, $17,000 in one bank, $15,000 in another, and $8,000 worth of Liberty bonds in a safe deposit box.

Today with granting of letters of administration by Judge Thomas Graham to Captain Stark, the statement was made in court that John Ralph Wilson, attorney for the organization, and Captain Stark himself, had found only $100 in each bank and no Liberty bonds whatever.

Wilson would make no public statement other than to say that the bank books were not in keeping with the situation at the bank. He obtained permission to seal Captain Swanson's private safe at his store, pending an investigation.

Stanford May Ban Autos From Campus

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 3.—Stanford students desire to eliminate automobiles from the Stanford campus the question will be brought to a student body vote. This was decided by the Stanford executive committee today in response to agitation against student-owned automobiles. The executive committee issued the following statement about the question: "In response to certain students' desire to eliminate autos on the campus the executive committee decided that the proposition did not warrant action at this time. However, if a sufficient number of students think such action is required, by submitting a petition signed by fifty students, they may have the matter brought to a vote at a student body election."

Greek Theater Held Against Mimic Siege

BERKELEY, March 3.—Machine guns and two companies of cadets defended the Greek Theater today against an imaginary enemy and peppered the sides of Charter hills with volleys of lead. The second half of the day military drills were held by the U. S. C. and the entire units were reviewed by the commissioned staff at the University. While the infantry companies held a regimental review, target practice was being conducted by the machine-gun and light artillery companies. The half-day drills on the campus have been inaugurated to take the place of the former sham battles which have been made impossible by the rapid building of homes in the North Berkeley section.

Director Named for U. C. Extravaganza

BERKELEY, March 3.—Irving Pichel, assistant director of the Greek Theater, has been chosen by the Senior Class at the University to coach the 1922 Extravaganza. "Fred Carlyle will coach the dancing choruses for the production, and Wheeler Beckett, a senior student, will direct the music."

DOUBLE FUNERAL FOR BANKER, WIFE

BERKELEY, March 3.—Double funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at local undertaking parlors for Mrs. Josephine Fowler, 44, and her husband, Herbert Fowler, cashier of the First National Bank at Vacaville, both of whom succumbed to pneumonia.

Josephine Fowler, aged 44, and her sister, Henrietta, 11, children of the deceased couple, are both seriously ill with the same malady at their home in Vacaville. As soon as they are recovered they will come to Berkeley to make their home with relatives.

Mrs. Fowler was a member of a well-known Berkeley family, being the daughter of Mrs. Rebecca E. Walworth, 1908 Grant street. She made her home in Berkeley until her marriage fifteen years ago. She was 44 years old and her husband 42 years of age. Both were born in California. Besides her mother Mrs. Fowler is survived by three brothers, Dr. C. Walworth of Oakland and Stephen and Russell Walworth of Berkeley. Tomorrow's funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Frank Silsby, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Oakland. Interment will be in Sunset View Cemetery.

Rougeless Wage Rouses Working Goils to Wrath

TOPEKA, Kas., March 3.—(By United Press.)—Working girls of Kansas cannot dress on $8.55 a year and get along without garters, hairpins and cosmetics.

This was the element of comedy thrown into the minimum wage fight for P. W. G.'s before the stockings which at 25 cents a pair, following the dramatic storming of two department stores here late yesterday by about 200 girls, who were angered by testimony of Miss Nell Berger, a witness for employees, who said before the court that working girls could dress that way.

At the Crosby brothers' department store, where Miss Berger is employed, the girls, who formed when they got off from work yesterday at 5 o'clock, demanded to see her. She was in. Leaders of the girl demonstrators claimed she went out the back door as they came in. The militant feminine workers then called the manager of the store, demanding to see the stockings which at 25 cents a pair, Miss Berger told the court working girls could use at the rate of six pairs a year—that would be sufficient.

Miss Berger declared a P. W. G. can get along with these articles of clothing yearly.

After "tongue lashings" heaped upon various members of the Crosby personnel, the girls marched out of the store and another department store, where they put on a similar demonstration.

The P. W. G. "riot" grew out of minimum wage hearings which the industrial court is holding through out the State to determine whether the minimum wage for women shouldn't be raised to $16.50 a week, the sum the welfare department of the court holds is a bare living wage.

One cotton dress, $7; one worsted dress, $13.50; one $30 suit every three years, or $10 a year for this item; aprons, $3 a year; one coat, costing $25, every three years, or $8.35 a year; two hats, total cost $8; neckwear, $1; two blouses a year, total cost $5.95; one kimono 95 cents; purse $1; one umbrella every two years, $1 or 50 cents a year; two cotton and two sateen petticoats, total $4.50; four cotton suits of underwear, $6.10; four night gowns, $4.50; one corset, $1; two pair shoes, total cost $8; six pairs stockings, total cost $1.50; one dozen handkerchiefs, $1, and one pair of cotton and one pair of kid gloves, total, $2.75. Grand total, $57.65.

COOK IS RESCUED BY U. C. STUDENTS

BERKELEY, March 3.—The rescue of Charles Quong, a Chinese cook, by two University students, lent added excitement to an early morning blaze in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Starkweather, 2428 Bowditch street, today.

Starkweather and his son Frank discovered the fire. There are six university students rooming in the house. They awakened the students. Later it was discovered that Charles Quong, whose room is near the furnace, had been overcome by smoke.

Two students, Constantine E. O'Neill and Kenneth L. Kessler, ran back into the burning house and rescued the Chinese.

The fire broke out in the basement. The damage was only about $200. A spectacular blaze occurred late yesterday at the plant of the San Francisco Separator Company, Second and Gilman streets.

The fire started in the waste chute and the flames shot high into the air and were seen for many blocks. The fire was extinguished with no loss to the plant.

Mrs. Barndollar Is Again Club Chief

Mrs. Gladys Barndollar was elected to succeed herself as president of the Business and Professional Women's Club at the annual dinner last night, held in the Broadway quarters. Those who will serve as an executive board with Mrs. Barndollar during the coming year are: Vice-president, Miss Bird M. Wilson; secretary, Miss Esther Hoerst; treasurer, Miss Eva Stromberg; auditor, Miss Florence King; directors, Miss Doris Cooley, Miss Eva Harris, Mrs. Sylvia G. Ward.

A membership of 225 was reported. Retiring officers and department chairmen reviewed the work of the past year.

Police Dash In, Save Divorcee's Flivver

BERKELEY, March 3.—In response to a hurry call, the Berkeley police rescued an auto which Manuel Costa is said to have attempted to retrieve from his former wife, Angeline Costa, who lives at 1713 Blake street. The Costas were divorced last March and Mrs. Costa was awarded the auto when division of the community property was made.

Costa, who lives in San Francisco, is said to have called on his former wife yesterday and attempted to take the flivver away from her. She sent her 15-year-old daughter, Alice Enos, to the police station with a "Save Our Flivver" message.

Police Officer William Peck responded. When he arrived Costa had departed, leaving the car behind.

Pearl White Signs For Paris Engagement

PARIS, March 3.—Pearl White, motion picture actress, today signed a contract to appear in a new review at the Casino de Paris on April 1. Miss White will receive five thousand francs a performance, according to her press agent, the highest salary now paid any actress in Paris.

The facts, so far as they are known, about the mysterious personality of Robin Hood will be told in next Sunday's TRIBUNE Magazine, one of the series under the heading "History's Mysteries."

OAKLAND MAY GET NEW WILLYS AUTO FACTORY

President of Big Corporation Tells Merchants of Plans for Coast Plant.

"Oakland will get a fair chance in the selection of the Pacific coast site for our new factory, and this choice will be made soon because we must have a plant in California before the end of the present year," said John N. Willys, president of the Willys Overland and Willys Knight motor car factories, before more than 300 members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce today at a luncheon given in honor of Willys' visit to Oakland.

"California is certainly on its way to industrial success. Six years ago when I just suited this State your people seemed principally interested in exploiting California as the world's most enticing playground. On this trip I find an entirely different spirit. You are concerned most now with assisting in the industrial upbuilding of America and you have every natural advantage which makes for successful manufacture."

"Your wonderful harbor is going to mean much to you in the future when export trade has revived, and this prosperity will come after we have a ship subsidy backed by the United States Government."

"There's something contagious about California climate which makes you want to do things, and for our part we want to participate in this spirit."

"The welcome accorded me has been so warm everywhere I have visited in the West that I would like to build a factory in every one of your cities."

Willys will go south from here and he has promised to return to Oakland, and again inspect manufacturing sites.

Joseph King, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided at the luncheon.

Former President Of Stanford Buried

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 3.—The funeral of Dr. John B. Bramer, former president of Stanford, who died Wednesday night, will be held at his campus home this afternoon. SUSPECT IS HELD AS ASSAILANT OF NOTED SCULPTOR

Religious Fanatic Captured at Salinas to Be Taken Before Artist for Identification.

SAN JOSE, March 3.—Belief that a young man held prisoner by the officers at Salinas is the one who recently attacked and severely injured Robert Paine, prominent sculptor of Los Gatos, is expressed by Sheriff Lyle and his deputies who have investigated the case.

Paine has identified a razor and a number of valuable papers found in the young man's pockets as belonging to him. He asserts they were in a pack he carried and which was stolen by his assailant.

The injured sculptor is now at his home in Los Gatos suffering from the cuts and blows he received at the hands of the young bandit.

According to word received by the sheriff here the young prisoner has not given the Salinas officers any information regarding himself, but constantly quotes Bible verses. They declare he is a religious fanatic.

The attack on Paine was made near Monte Arroyo, where he was on a hiking trip. In his statement to the officers he said he had been looking over valuable land interests and was on his way to the hotel.

The stranger approached him on a lonely road and inquired the way to Salinas. Paine informed him, but instead of going in that direction the young man walked with him. As they reached a clump of trees the stranger suddenly drew a large butcher knife and sprang at Paine, cutting him about the face and body.

As Paine attempted to fight him off, the stranger picked up a stick and beat him on the head. As he struck, he cried:

"Now I've got you, Judas Iscariot."

As Paine fell the youth snatched his pack and fled. The injured sculptor was found by the driver of a milk wagon shortly afterward and was taken to the Hotel Del Monte and was later taken to his home at Los Gatos.

It is probable the young man will be brought here and taken before Paine to see if he can be identified.

Visitor to Alameda Nabbed As Suspect

ALAMEDA, March 3.—Pete Camozzi of Novato, Marin county, came to Alameda yesterday to visit his sister, Mrs. Della Millan, 534 Palace court. He failed to find her and home and returned to the Fifth street station to wait a train to San Francisco. He spent the spare time walking back and forth along the block. Someone saw him at his perambulation and figured that Pete was a burglar getting a line upon the houses. They telephoned the police and Pete was taken into custody. Police Chief William W. Mahoney and Lieutenant George Daly put him through a severe cross-examination. He was released.

Cragmont Club to Assemble Tomorrow

BERKELEY, March 3.—The Cragmont Improvement Club will hold its monthly meeting tomorrow evening at the Cragmont school, Euclid avenue and Regal court. PAY BUTCHER AND BAKER, IS CITY'S BEHEST

Commissioner Frank Colbourn today issued a reminder to the police and fire departments that city employees are required under the charter to pay their bills for the necessities of life. This means groceries, meat, rent and other such things. It does not apply to automobiles and player pianos.

The reminder follows a recent episode wherein a fireman who was sued by a butcher went through legal travail, leaving the butcher unpaid. The city charter, however, holds that such bills are mandatory, and though it is believed that nothing will happen to the fireman, because of his bankruptcy, Colbourn says that the affair "does not give him pleasant thoughts."

"The charter is specific," says the commissioner. "Public employees are, and are expected to be, timely in their payments for necessities. I do not want to hear any more complaints from butchers or grocers. Happily such things are rare."

Ferry Firm Plans Highway Short Cut

RICHMOND, March 3.—The Six Minute Ferry company may construct a short cut road from Crockett up the canyon to connect with the Franklin canyon road. It was announced yesterday. The company is trying to find a way around the Valona slide on the state highway as a preliminary move in its effort to compete with the Redco ferry which will soon open up its new slip between Oleum and Selby.

PROMPT ACTION DESIRED.

Members of the delegation from the Bay cities which went to Washington for a conference with the appropriate government agencies regarding the formation of a large shipping pool for the operation of American ships in the transpacific trade are home with the quite definite impression that the project will go through. At least encouraging progress has been marked and if the Congress adopts the policy of granting certain advantages recommended by President Harding on Monday, the Pacific Coast shipping combination is practically assured. These citizens are also convinced that it is imperative proper assistance be given to American ships by the government. That is quite natural. It also happens at this time to be the correct conclusion. The President has outlined a policy which he believes urgent and also adequate.

Perhaps another scheme can be devised. But if the policy recommended to Congress is adopted, the American merchant marine will be saved. It can survive with reasonable prosperity under the advantages contemplated. If it cannot thus survive, perhaps it is impossible to find a legitimate way to save it.

Since a program of assistance from the government is urgent, and since the President has submitted a plan which will provide adequate and reasonable assistance, it will appeal to the average citizen that common sense enjoins Congress to adopt the plan at once. If changes should prove desirable later on they can be made. Immediate action was never at so high a premium and useless discussion at so heavy a discount as at present. Action will save the merchant marine; inaction and indefinite delay will result in America's greatest opportunity to take its proper place in the carrying trade being lost.

EVASION NOT PRACTICABLE.

A representative of the Canadian government in Washington has been informed, according to news reports, by congressional leaders that Congress is not disposed to consider favorably any suggestion of trade reciprocity between the United States and Canada. These leaders, nothing loathe in the presence of responsibility, thus put an important question calmly aside.

We shall not say that the Canadian proposal is meritorious. We are not informed as to its salient features. It is not even a definite conclusion that reciprocity is the best thing for both or for either the United States and Canada.

But this much seems reasonably certain: That it will not be possible for either country to ignore indefinitely the industrial, commercial and economic character and processes of the other country. Reciprocity has a pleasant sound, an impression gained from the usually pleasant results of reciprocity. But perhaps relations between the two countries must be characterized by some other feeling and condition. Be that as it may, the question will continually force itself upon national attention until it is settled in the right way.

HE MIGHT FALL OFF.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva of Chicago disputes the globular theory of the earth; he challenges all the accepted theories concerning the solar system and the forces and laws that account for its motions. He holds the earth to be flat. He proposes to fit out a ship to prove to those who disagree with him that there is a jumping-off place—a rim beyond which travel is impossible. Why not encourage Voliva in this project? Let him carry out his experiment. Apparently there is no other way to convince him. His shortcoming in knowledge is so abysmal that he does not comprehend it. Many centuries ago there was an ecclesiastical dictum that the earth was flat and that those who proposed to circumnavigate the globe were fools and infidels. Curiously enough, the error of this postulate never has been acknowledged and the pronouncement never has been withdrawn, notwithstanding ing the voyages of the Portuguese navigators who reached the East Indies and of Columbus and Magellan.

There is no reason why Mr. Voliva should not spend his time hunting the rim of a pancake-like earth. And if by chance he should attain that rim he might fall off and be heard from no more.

THE ANSWER.

A few days ago when it was raining hard on the coast line and snowing in the Sierra to store up the summer supply of water and energy for hydro-electric development—and confessedly snowing for a day on the coast lowlands—the eastern papers were in high glee. They expatiated on the subject in great length in the news and editorial columns.

One of these daily journals beyond the Rockies privileged to feel for the moment that there is a touch of kinship throughout the world was the Kansas City Star. It felt sure that California would shortly have an explanation to make of the weather; it beseeched its readers to be patient and give California time to find a happy explanation.

But the Star is destined to be disappointed. There is no necessity to explain the climate out here—one does not have to provide against climate as in Kansas and Iowa and Nebraska, whence so large a migration westward has taken place.

This State has a different way. The process is going on now. It is sending the people of the East fresh asparagus, celery, fresh green peas and strawberries, freshly picked oranges and lemons from the San Joaquin and Oroville districts. Soon the Vacaville cherries will be on the way, as will loganberries and fresh tomatoes.

And the curious part of it all is that, thanks to the extension of highways and the improvement in modes of travel, a visiting Kansan may leave these orchards and gardens and within three or four hours' ride be in the most majestic winter scenes on the earth, in the Yosemite and in the Tahoe region. Nothing would be so certain of curing a middle western newspaper editor of his little provincialism as such an experience.

Students of five Oakland high schools have entered into an agreement to eschew rowdiness in their student activities. They undertake, in connection with their inter-scholastic rivalries, to conform to rules of decent conduct, to show proper regard for public property, to abstain from painting buildings and sidewalks, from the thefts of student property and other demoralizing and destructive practices. This is a fine and manly resolution on the part of the students. It marks a long-desired improvement in the student's sense of responsibility to himself to be a self-respecting, law-abiding member of the community.

A bill is pending in Congress to create a bureau of aeronautics in the Department of Commerce, to encourage and regulate the operation of civil aircraft in interstate and foreign commerce and for other purposes. One of the provisions of this bill prohibits licensed pilots from indulging in "trick flying, aerial acrobatics, stunt flights, etc." There are to be penalties of fines and imprisonment for violations of this provision. Good! The spirit of this bill will in time become the rule of all regulations and practices in connection with airplane operations.

College professors are after all a rather patient, uncomplaining lot. Not one of them has protested against university athletic committees paying to a football coach from three to five times more than a professor receives for his work. But perhaps the professors know that the undergraduate body must take this view of the relative importance of the various branches of higher education.

THE BUTCHER'S SHARE.

The retail butcher now begins to get his vindication and get it from the United States Department of Agriculture. A survey by the Department reveals that in the cities, New York included, the local distributor's labor cost of selling his meat after he has bought it from the wholesaler is so high that nothing else, rent, interest, profit or whatever it may be, very much counts.

Out of each dollar paid by the consumer to the local butcher $1.14 cents goes for wholesale cost of the meat to the retailer. Of the 18.85 cents remaining to him about two-tenths of a cent goes into heat, light and power; about half a cent into interest; about three-quarters of a cent, wrapping; more than three-quarters of a cent, ice and refrigeration; one and a third cents, rent; about two and a quarter cents, profit; about two and three-quarter cents, miscellaneous expenses, and the one big item, ten and a quarter cents, wages.

At an auction of wax figures in Germany that of Premier Poincare of France was bid in at $450, Joffre and President Wilson, holding the fourteen points, brought $30 each. It is pointed out as significant that a group of notorious criminals brought over $3000.

The only thing that surprises us is that anyone would be willing to give $30 for a wax Wilson or a wax Joffre. Imagine having such an ornament in one's home. Nothing could be more solemn or disturbing than to find Wilson in the parlor and Joffre on guard in the hall. Wax celebrities are not convincing. Their mustaches come out of their lips like the bristles of a toothbrush and droop disconsolately. Only the wax criminal is impressive, and that is because the artist may take liberties with his subject, give a malignant leer, the deadly scowl and the cocky chin tilt of bravado.

We are opposed to the wax celebrity; there are too many of them in office. By the same token, we favor the wax criminal; they are in every way the most satisfactory members of their profession.

Those who may have thought that Brander Matthews was old enough to know better will be surprised to learn of his knowledge of important modern terms and tricks. In the "Celebrities Number" of the Columbia Jester, the learned professor writes as follows:

There's a skirt around the campus
Who is up here just to vamp us;
And we've got to get up early
If we want to dodge that girlie.

Even if we're shy and fearful
She will promptly spill an earful;
She will sing her glad romanza—
As you'll learn in the next stanza:

He was not a stalwart scrapper,
And he shrank from every flapper.
She was bound to take the doughnut—
This he got into his slow nut.

When he said his name was Jimmy,
She began at once to shimmy,
A-courting of her torso,
Sometimes less, yet often more so. . .

At this point Prof. Matthews writes he is sorry he was unable to finish the thing.

NOTES and COMMENT

The Industrial Accident Commission has some nuts to crack. A hard one is that of the San Francisco man who represents that while in the employ of the Law Enforcement League he lost 21 teeth from the effects of bootleg whisky which he sampled in the discharge of his duties. What he really ought to do is to seek a new assignment from the League as a horrible example. There might be greater success in showing the populace the effects of bootleg booze than in trying to keep it away from them.

The Guatemala elections are said to have been a virtual walkover for General Orellana. Thus we are advised of the status there, till the contestant who was walked over is able to marshal forces sufficient to reverse the count, when there will be another face of it to take account of.

There is no doubt that Ambassador Harvey is a good exemplification of that feathered biped which talked too much. He seems incapable of understanding that garrulity is not a necessary qualification for a diplomat. At that, it can't be shown that Harvey has given away great national secrets. But a diplomat may utter himself too copiously and still not say much. He may make a nation nervous with fear of what he is going to say next.

The dean says the male flapper is as prominent on the U. C. campus as the female. This may be true. At least, it will be difficult to disprove as to just what a flapper is. No doubt the qualities that first led to the characterization of a class of girls as flappers are to be found in a class of boys. Neither sex monopolizes all the traits.

When an American city goes broke and can't pay, nothing happens except the suffering of the creditors, who after a while may get tired and agree to whatever scaling is proposed.

The town of Swift Water couldn't, or at least didn't, pay, and a Justice of the King's Bench gave judgment for some quarter of a million to the creditors, and then appointed a receiver to see that they get their money. That is quite different, and may be a warning to towns not yet broke to proceed carefully.

The notice that six doctors had lost their State licenses for violating the State Narcotic Act suggests that there may be a wholesale and professional cleaning out of an honored profession through the stress that now seems to be on. No profession is without its unworthy members, but the emergency does not always arise where they are disclosed so glaringly. The physician who abuses his professional privilege to the extent of pandering to addicts deserves to lose his right to practice.

While it is a little belated, the following from the New York Sun is evidence that there are facts which cannot be overlooked:

To judge from the recent news one would think the main educational problems at the moment were whether boys should smoke and whether girls should play football.

KITTENS.

Oh, something wonderful occurred at our house just the other day. And there's a constant troop of boys and girls to see this new display. Though mother's not so very pleased, to things like this she has to bow.

The children dance around with glee because our cat has kittens now. Old folks, I know, are seldom pleased when such a glad event occurs. To them it is no source of joy to hear the way the mother purrs.

They'd much prefer a single cat—but little children think its fine to find one cat they had before has grown to seven or eight or nine.

When I went down to fix the fire she mewled to me to come and see. The lovely babies she possessed, and proudly showed them all to me.

Now kittens are an added care, especially if some must drown. But somehow I felt differently when I had called the youngsters down.

Their eyes were wide with glad surprise; they danced around the cellar floor. Here was a glorious bit of joy they'd not experienced before.

What matters all the extra care? The kids are happy anyhow. Here's something new for them to boast—our old gray cat has kittens now!

NEEDED HELP.

Of a small southern town one rainy night, Mike sailors on a reeling deck, they were discussing a member of their party who had to retire from the scene of action. The principal speaker in the group appeared to be having some difficulty in keeping his footing on the swaying pavement.

The buildings on either side bowed and rocked. The telephone poles did some sort of contortionist stunt and even his voice was a bit thick.

"Where's Sam?" another member of the group asked him. "We took him home," the first speaker informed him between hicoughs.

BONIN ISLANDS

Japan's formal definition of her mainland as including the Bonin archipelago, 500 miles to the south of her principal islands, and the discussion of fortifications there, turn the spotlight of world news to these remote bits of land. They are the subject of the following bulletin from the Washington headquarters of the National Geographic Society:

of Bonin is a distinct misnomer for the little islands which, until the additions that the World War brought, represented Japan's farthest extension southward toward the heart of the Pacific. It means "without inhabitants," whereas a number of the twenty islets of the group now support among them a population of nearly 5000. But "Bonin" now is only a western term. To the Japanese the islands are Ogasawara Jima, family name of the first Japanese known to have viewed them, who, like Lief Erikson in his discovery of America, was driven to the islands by a storm.

"Political conditions and crudeness of transportation facilities, not lack of value, long doomed the Ogasawaras to remain without inhabitants. Like most lands of volcanic origin they have an exceedingly fertile soil. Because of warm currents their climate is in effect tropical, although they are just north of the Tropic of Cancer. Man could have existed on them without raising a problem of work. Wild beans and a profusion of edible mushrooms grew in the valleys and wild pineapples and other fruits on the hillsides. Palms and tree-ferns furnished shade and greenery. And in other ways the islands were like a Garden of Eden when they were explored by the crew of an American whaler in 1823. There were no quadrupeds and only a few harmless reptiles. And the birds, unmolested by any living things, were entirely without fear of man and could be caught by hand.

"At the present time the islands produce all the Japanese cereals and many vegetables and fruits, and are stocked with the common domestic animals. There also are wild goats, sheep, pigs and even dogs and cats, descendants of animals left by the first settlers. Of course, the production from the islands amounts to little for those large enough for development have an aggregate area of only about 20 square miles.

"Although they are closer to Japan than to any other nation, the Ogasawaras came near not being a Japanese territory. There is nothing to show that the Japanese knew of their existence before Prince Sadayaru Ogasawara was driven to their shores about the end of the sixteenth century, whereas the Spanish explorer, Villalobos, first sighted them in 1543. The Ogasawara family made the islands theoretically a part of their feudal land holdings, but they did not settle them, and when Japan drew more securely into its shell in 1633 by forbidding its subjects to construct sea-going vessels, all touch with the islands was lost for nearly a hundred years, and again from 1723 to 1861. Abel Tasman, Dutch explorer, surveyed some of the islands early in the seventeenth century and American whalers explored them in 1823 and 1824. In 1827 a British admiral claimed the islands for his country.

"The Ogasawaras received their first settlers in 1830. They consisted of a few British subjects from Hawaii, who seem to have led the expedition, a few Americans and Portuguese and a handful of Polynesians. They considered themselves a British colony. As late as 1876 the settlers and a few others who had been aided lived on the islands without any government or organization and without educational facilities of any kind, trading with the whalers who by that time frequented the waters. In 1861 Great Britain renounced all claims to the islands in favor of Japan, and that year an unsuccessful effort was made to plant a Japanese colony. Later efforts were successful and the population now is almost entirely Japanese.

RIEBER IS ASKED TO RECONSIDER HIS RESIGNATION

BERKELEY, March 3.—Members of the faculty of the University of California yesterday united at a special meeting of the academic senate in asking Professor Charles Henry Rieber to reconsider his resignation as head of the philosophy department.

The academic senate earnestly requests Professor Rieber to recall the resignation which he has forwarded to the regents, "was the brief text of the resolutions, which will be forwarded to Rieber in Arizona, where he has gone to recuperate from a nervous breakdown at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ira Jorjensen.

According to Recorder James Sutton, secretary of the senate, the merits of the resignation question were not considered at the meeting yesterday in Wheeler auditorium. Regret at the loss of Professor Rieber, who is a national figure in philosophical circles, was expressed by faculty members and the unanimous passing of the resolutions resulted from the short discussion.

Professor Rieber, who suffered a nervous breakdown coupled with an attack of influenza following the tendering of his resignation when the Strawberry canyon site was announced for the stadium, will remain at the home of his daughter until he is fully recovered. Mrs. Jorjensen is the wife of a well-known Arizona mining engineer.

NEW RULES FOR SCHOOL CAUSE ROW

The Board of Education last night adopted the new set of rules which split the authority of the executive department into three divisions: The superintendent, the business management and the Board of Education, through its secretary.

The adoption of the rules came after a storm. Mrs. Daisy Short, minority member, changed her vote to "aye" and then moved for reconsideration Monday night. According to parliamentary rule, the board must vote Monday on reconsideration.

The rules were adopted in spite of salutes by Mrs. Short, Director Chandler and LeRoy Goodrich, representing business and civic clubs, while members of the opposite faction, some of them also representing clubs, applauded.

Goodrich pleaded that the rules be delayed until high school students should give opinions on them. He asked that the people be given a chance to be heard. He promised that the presidents of Stanford, Mills College, and the University of California would be present to give their opinions if desired. At the end of the board session, while President Boyle rapped with the gavel and ignored him, Goodrich promised to "take the matter before the people of Oakland."

The opinion of the public education advisory committee on the rules, and its report thereon, was read by Chairman L. B. Magoon of the committee. It was an analysis of the functions of the educational department and recommended that the powers of the superintendent of schools be split into the three divisions.

Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter, who once spoke against this, is now in the East.

A motion by Director J. F. Chandler to lay over the report for investigation was defeated.

Goodrich said he understood that by March 6 he was supposed to collect the opinions of leading educators in the country on the rules, and then arrange for a joint meeting of the Board of Education with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and others.

Chairman Boyle said Goodrich had no such authority.

Director Short termed the advisory committee's report "an exhibition of presumption, Sovietism and as in the presentations of alleged facts," and picked out a phrase where it was held that "a purchasing agent buys everything from needles to locomotives," saying that this should be changed to "steam rollers." She asserted that the national educator, P. P. Claxton, said that Oakland's schools under the old rules were the second most efficient in the United States.

Director Hatch also joined in the attack. "I see no particular use to hurry these rules through," he said. "Citizens may have ideas on the subject, which this board might hear. I fear the board is adopting the wrong procedure."

"The board definitely promised that there would be no action until a public hearing could be held," charged Goodrich. "Meanwhile I have been trying to get ideas from big educators, as requested."

"You are mistaken in the idea that the board delegated you," said Boyle. "I clearly understood it was to be left to me," said Goodrich.

HATCH VOTED DOWN.

Director Hatch then moved to have a public hearing Monday. He was voted down.

"Refer it to the committee of the whole," said Commissioner Edwards. "If there are any faults found with the rules bring it up then."

"But there is no committee of the whole," said Mrs. Short.

Director Georgia Ormsby, who framed the rules, spoke in their defense.

"There seems to be an idea that I did not study these rules at all," she said. "Now there are requests by certain groups of citizens who want to straighten them out for me. I have studied the rules for months. I find only one basis for criticism, that it takes the power from one man. Let us vote now. Speak now or forever hold your peace."

"I was told we would have plenty of opportunity to speak," said Goodrich. "Neither the schools nor any one will suffer if this matter is laid over. There is only one possible reason for this haste. Perhaps the board members do not want to receive the opinions of educators or others."

"This motion is not debatable," said Boyle.

"You will place yourself in an unfavorable position if you take action before competent opinions have been received," said Goodrich.

L. B. Magoon came from behind the rail and spoke vehemently. He said:

"There seems to be an effort to spread the shame of Oakland to the whole wide world. This young man has appointed himself the publicity agent. So far as experts are concerned, I will say that this community has been fed up with experts for some time."

APPOINTMENT DENIED.

"I repeat," said Goodrich, "that I was appointed by this board to act."

"You were not appointed," contradicted Boyle. "Call the roll."

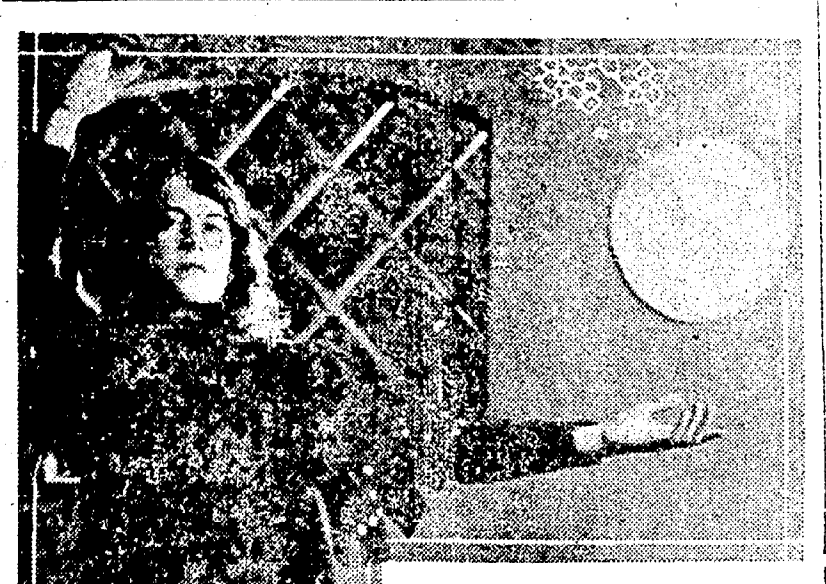

Directors Boyle, Edwards, Ormsby and Campbell voted for the new rules. Directors Hatch, Chandler and Short voted against the board, and then Mrs. Short changed her vote and moved for a reconsideration. Magoon asserted that the rules will go through anyhow.

Bids for the Alexander Hamilton junior high school were analyzed from a legal standpoint by the district attorney and the matter of awarding contracts was laid over.

In defense of keeping the schools open on Washington's birthday, bitterly attacked by certain days as they declare a holiday on Washington's birthday when the children scattered to the four winds and never thought of the importance of the day. It was decided that better results would be obtained if the children remained in school and held appropriate exercises. It was the view of this office that boards of education have not the legal right to declare a holiday on Washington's birthday as the legislature has stated that the schools must remain open and exercises must be given.

Fifty Students to Take Part in Production of "If I Were King."

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 3.—Elaborate preparations are being made here for the Stanford English Club's presentation of "If I Were King" in the Stanford Assembly Hall next Wednesday night. This play ranks with "The Yellow Jacket" as one of the largest productions ever given on the Stanford stage, according to Gordon Davis, University dramatic coach. Over fifty students have parts in the production.

Miss Helen Whitney, of Berkeley, has the leading feminine part in the play. Campus critics who have seen her work in the rehearsals declare that she has a great future on the Stanford stage. Miss Whitney recently played in the sophomore play "You Never Can Tell." She is also an accomplished dancer, taking part in "The Heart of Pierrot," which was given in Palo Alto last summer.

Lester Selb, veteran Stanford actor and dramatic coach, plays the role of Francois Villon, the vagabond poet, in "If I Were King." Selb has had previous experience in portraying carefree characters. He played the leading part in "Pierre of the Plains."

Great interest is being taken in the production by followers of dramatics in San Francisco, and the Bay cities, according to Gordon Davis, and a large number of visitors are expected at the show.

Others in the cast besides Miss Whitney and Selb, are Dean Ross, Eva Williams, Violet Andrews, and Scherl Levy.

STATE SIFTS LETTERS OF RICH SUICIDE

A further investigation to determine the motive why Lawrence Jorgensen, wealthy apartment house owner, ended his life was ordered today by Captain of Inspectors Richard McSorley.

Jorgensen left three suicide notes and in one of the notes he refers to two men as his "murderers." In a second note he requests the police to notify Joseph Siye, his attorney, who has offices in the Phelan Building in San Francisco. In the note to Siye he writes that the attorney knows all the facts concerning the case.

"The man may have been depressed but that is one of the facts we must find out," said Coroner Grant D. Miller. "I am trying to get in touch with his attorney and find out what he meant in the second letter," said Mr. McSorley.

The body of Jorgensen was found in the gas filled kitchen of his apartment at 255 East Twelfth street by Vernon Maynard, who also resides in the apartment house. Maynard swept the order of gas and went into Jorgensen's apartment to find out what was wrong.

The first note was found pinned on the kitchen door by Maynard. It follows:

"This is not a case of wanted to commit suicide. Every nerve in my body is torn, I was murdered for my crime. This is the most hideous crime I ever committed. I want an autopsy performed on my body to prove that this is the truth and to have these two inhuman brutes prosecuted for murder. My attorney is Joseph Siye on the tenth floor of the Phelan Building. He already knows, and he is to take charge of this matter. This is the truth before God and man."

(Signed) "L. JORGENSEN."

The second note was found clutched in the dead man's hand. It follows:

"Please do not make any disturbance. Just take me out quiet and don't say anything about it. Please be sure to deliver this letter to Siye. The third note was found by the police in his coat pocket. It reads: "Please do not cut me down until I am dead, as I cannot live." This note was signed "Lawrence." The police believe that Jorgensen intended to hang himself but changed his mind.

Maynard after finding the body called Dr. J. M. Smithwick, who said that he had been dead for two hours.

BATH, Eng., March 3.—Following recommendations based on a water-diviners' researches, this city will spend $15,000 sinking wells to increase its water supply.

NEW DRIVE TO RAISE AID FOR UNEMPLOYED

A new drive for funds to alleviate the unemployment situation in the city was formally launched at a luncheon today at the Hotel Oakland.

With representatives, who will make a systematic and intensive canvass of the city for five days from all business organizations attending the luncheon, J. Cal Ewing, campaign chairman, outlined the drive to the team members, and captains and explained that more than $50,000 will be needed to carry the unemployed over the present period of industrial depression.

According to Ewing, the drive will be for one per cent of the salaries of employed men and women for eight weeks, and at the same time the campaign aims to employ for large sums will be "victoriously pushed." The money thus raised will go to the Emergency Employment Relief Committee, of which Thomas Eagle is chairman, and will be expended in hiring unemployed men on work of a public nature.

Team members from the Rotary, Kiwanis, Electric, Optimist, Lions and the Progressive Business clubs, and the Specialty Salesmen, the Business Development League and others attended the luncheon.

Congregational Church to Ordain Mrs. H. S. Ranney

BERKELEY, March 3.—In recognition of her work as executive secretary of the woman's board of the Pacific, Mrs. Helen Street Ranney, widow of Rev. William H. Ranney, well-known Congregational minister, will be ordained at a special service next Monday afternoon at the First Congregational church.

Mrs. Ranney, who lives at 35 Panoramic way, will be the first woman to be thus honored by the local church. A license to preach will be given the new woman minister of the gospel.

President Herman F. Swartz of the Pacific School of Religion will deliver the sermon, while Dr. C. S. Nash will offer the ordination prayer at the services. Other ministers will also take part while invitations have been extended to the various Congregational churches of the Bay region to send representatives.

Woman Urged for Successor to Landis

CHICAGO, March 3.—Appointment of Miss Florence King as judge of the United States District Court here to succeed Judge K. M. Landis was urged in resolutions made public here today by the Women's Bar Association of Illinois. Miss King is a member of the association. Copies of the resolution are to be sent to President Harding, Attorney-General Daugherty and Illinois representatives in Congress.

PROF. KUNO COLLAPSES AT LECTURE

BERKELEY, March 3.—Collapsing while delivering a lecture to one of his classes at the university, Professor Yoshi S. Kuno was taken to his home yesterday afternoon seriously ill. For many weeks Professor Kuno has been suffering from nervous disorders resulting, he charges, from his arrest in San Francisco, and alleged mistreatment by the police of that city.

Kuno, who has taken a stand against his own countrymen in the Japanese-California controversy, has been burdened by various worries as an outgrowth of the opposition to him by Japanese societies, and recently he filed a libel suit against a Japanese language newspaper in San Francisco, seeking $30,000 damages. The trouble caused Professor Kuno to become ill, and he has been away from his classes at the university for several days.

Yesterday he came to the campus to meet an upper-division class in Oriental history, and during the course of the hour's discussion, he was overcome and had to be carried from the room by students. He was taken to his home by F. W. Tenner, student body president, who is a member of the class. His home is at 1154 Arch street.

$46,920,908 IN STATE COFFERS; A NEW RECORD

SACRAMENTO, March 3.—There is probably more money in the state treasury now than at any time in the history of California, according to officials in the office of State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson. The total amount, as shown by the monthly statement issued by State Controller Ray L. Riley, is $46,920,908.64. The increase over previous months is due to the fact that recent sales of bonds for highway work and state buildings have been made and that semi-annual payments of franchise taxes have been practically completed, according to Deputy Treasurer John P. Johnson. The greater portion of this amount is represented in exchange which amounts to $22,619,503.41. The balance is divided as follows: Gold, $200,000; silver, $2,301,925; nickels and pennies, $60,76; currency, $126,737; warrants paid since February 1, $4,100,705.52; certificates of deposit, $19,870,000.

COLLEGE TEAMS TO DEBATE SALES TAX QUESTION

Stanford Debating Men Meet Washington at Seattle, Oregon at Palo Alto.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 3.—The annual tri-state debate between Stanford, the University of Oregon and the University of Washington will be held tonight here and at Seattle. The question to be discussed is: "Resolved, That the United States should levy a tax on manufacturers' sales." The Stanford affirmative team will meet the University of Oregon here while the Stanford team at Seattle will take the negative side of the question against the University of Washington. Harold Fendler and Leland Stanford will uphold the sales tax in the forensic contest here. Fendler was an alternate on the tri-state team last year and is a member of Nestor's Debating Society. This is Stanford's first appearance as a collegiate debater. He belongs to Nestor's Debating Society. The Stanford team that went to Seattle is composed of Bertram Compton and E. D. Landels, both experienced debaters.

WED OR RETURN $600 DIAMOND, EDICT OF COURT

NEW YORK, March 3.—Because Maurice Herschowitz let a $600 diamond solitaire do all the talking, he found himself facing his supposed fiancée, Miss Sadie Neudelman, across the trial in municipal court, Justice Caffery's court room yesterday. He wanted the ring back, he said, since Miss Neudelman had threatened to have her big brother throw him out when he finally got his courage up to the point of asking her to name the day. Miss Neudelman testified she had regarded Herschowitz's mute presentation at its face value—a mere gift and nothing more. "Do you want this precious stone or this precious girl?" inquired Justice Caffery, indicating the two treasures. "The girl," Herschowitz gulped. "And you?" asked the justice, turning to Miss Neudelman. "Well—I'll have to think it over," she said. Justice Caffery gave her the romantic months of spring—until June 25, to be exact—to say whether she would accept the ring with what he held was its implied bondage.

3000-ROOM HOTEL PLANNED. CHICAGO, March 3.—Plans for the world's largest hotel to contain 3000 guest rooms and to be built on Michigan boulevard at a cost of more than $12,000,000 were announced here today. The announcement followed the sale of a block of land south of the Blackstone hotel for $2,500,000 on which the new hotel, to be known as the Stevens, will be built. Construction, it was said, will start soon after May 1. The building will be 25 stories in height.

DOG IN HER MUFF. NEW YORK, March 3.—A young woman boarded a subway train carrying a large silk muff. All would have gone well if the tiny pet dog inside the muff had not poked his head out so that the guard spied him. Girl, muff and dog got off at the first stop.

HAPPINESS AIDS GROWTH. LONDON, March 3.—If you're short, you were unhappy in your youth; if you're tall, you were happy. Believe it or not, this was the scientific explanation of shortness and height given at the Educational Associations' Conference here by R. E. Roper. Children, he said, gained or lost in height according as the home atmosphere was bright and stimulating, or the reverse. RAIN KILLS ARCTIC HERO. LONDON, March 3.—Ben Wyatt, survivor of the Arctic expedition of 1878, died here from the effects of a slight cold caught in a rainstorm.

7 SPOOKS, 700 LETTERS, $30. HOVE, Eng., March 3.—Mrs. Kathleen Hahn, a widow, sent 700 unstamped letters to a British army officer on the Rhine. When cited to court, she said she had written by the command of seven spirits. She was ordered to pay $30 postage.

SAVED BY HER SEX. SWANSEA, Wales, March 3.—When Mrs. Fred Griffith reported fifteen minutes late for jury duty, the court informed her that under similar circumstances he would have fined a man, but would not fine a woman.

Fresno Raisin Day Festival Date Is Set

FRESNO, March 3.—The celebration of California Raisin Day will be held here on April 27 this year, it was decided yesterday when the delegates to the California Raisin Day Festival association met and named Al C. Joy president. The change was made because April 30, the usual day of the celebration, falls on Sunday.

A pageant commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Fresno will be presented. It was decided under the direction of Enory Rathcliff. Plans were discussed to hold a Raisin Week, including the date of the celebration.

Wife Says Husband Knocked Out Tooth

The refusal of Christian C. Boye of 2267 Pacific avenue, Alameda, to recognize 9-year-old Adolph Boye as his son, led to divorce proceedings, which were instituted today by Katherine A. Boye. The wife charges Boye with having struck her and knocked out one of her teeth, and asserts that he often came home intoxicated and broke the furniture. She asks custody of her son, Adolph, and a 16-year-old daughter, Alice, and $100 a month for their support. She also asks that the family home on Pacific avenue be awarded to her.

Do you want BETTER COFFEE?

A potato is only a potato. But let a clever housewife prepare it with her magic fingers—let her add a bit of cheese, or cover it with the golden brown of the roast in the oven and presto—the potato that was only a potato becomes a delicacy that brings a good glad smile to the face of any husband.

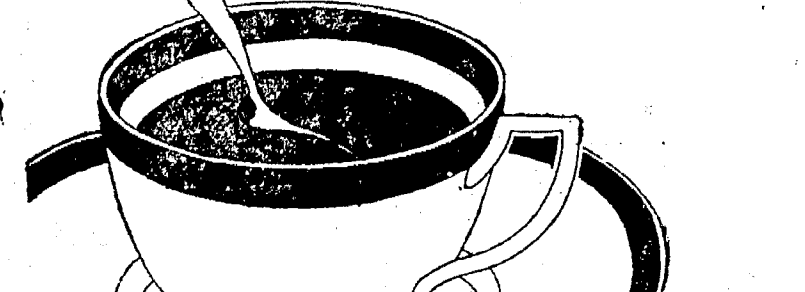

~and so with Coffee

How much more fragrant and tasty it is if you use just a little care in making it! Hard? Difficult? Troublesome? Not a bit of it. Just follow these six easy rules and note the difference in the taste of your next cup of Coffee.

Six Rules for Making Good Coffee

- KEEP YOUR COFFEE AIR-TIGHT—It loses its strength and aroma when exposed to air. Keep it in an air-tight container.
- MEASURE CAREFULLY—Experiment until you find just the proportions of Coffee and water that suit your taste. Then stick to them! Guessing usually means a poor cup of Coffee.
- USE GROUNDS ONLY ONCE—Don't leave the Coffee grounds in the pot for the next meal. Used Coffee grounds are of no more value in making good Coffee than ashes in building a fire.
- USE BOILING WATER—Boil your water, but don't boil your Coffee. Don't let the water and the ground bean boil together after they are mixed.
- SERVE AT ONCE—Many a pot of perfect Coffee has been ruined by letting it cool. If you must wait, keep the Coffee piping hot, but never let it boil. Re-cooking injures the flavor.
- SCOUR THE COFFEE POT—It is not enough to give the pot a hurried rinse and set it away to dry. Scour it even more carefully than other cooking utensils.

DEVELOPMENT OF PARK AT LASSEN PEAK IS URGED

Congress to Be Asked to Give More Than the Present Appropriation.

A determined drive to obtain from Congress enough money adequately to maintain and develop Lassen Peak national park, so it will be an attraction for tourists and visitors, soon is to be launched by representative interests as the result of a meeting held yesterday in the Palace hotel in San Francisco.

The gathering was called by "The Lassen Volcanic National Park Association," which was organized in San Francisco last Wednesday. It was attended by representatives of the California Development Board, the San Francisco and Oakland chambers of commerce, the California State Automobile Association, Northern California Hotel Men's Association, the Sierra Club, the Association of National Parks, N. E. Dittmar, of the Redding Chamber of Commerce; A. L. Conard of Red Bluff, president of the newly formed association; A. B. C. Dohmann, president of the Yosemite National Park Company; Mrs. Annette Adams, former assistant attorney general.

Conard, who was the principal speaker, declared that the present appropriation of $5000 annually is insufficient to meet the needs of the

ALEXANDER BELL STILL BUSY ON 75TH BIRTHDAY

WASHINGTON, March 3.—(By Associated Press).—Telephone companies, their officials say, have two special kinds of vanities to deal with among subscribers. One is possessed by those who desire special distinctive numbers and the other by those who wish their names to appear so-and-so in the directory.

The National Geographic Society, which has been digressing a bit from its accustomed paths to study the subject, has found, however, that Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, who today celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday, possesses neither of these vanities.

To prove it the society points out that the father of the telephone appears thus in the Washington telephone directory: "Bell, A. Graham (residence) 1331 Conn. ave., Franklin 58."

The Geographic Society in connection with Dr. Bell's birthday, also is authority for the statement that the inventor, who still works in his laboratory daily, often until 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning, asserted modestly the other day to officials of the United States patent office: "I rather think that you know more about the telephone today than I do."

He then called attention to the more than 8000 patents relating to telephones since he obtained the original patents in 1876.

AUSTRALIA SOLON PRAISES WORK OF ARMS DELEGATES

Hughes' Bluntness in Telling Britain Her Duty Astonishes Diplomats.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Secretary of State Hughes bluntly told the British delegates at the Washington conference that the time had come for Britain to give up her centuries-old position as the world's foremost naval power and ruler of the oceans. But yet certain Americans of praising Secretary Hughes merely because he "played Britain's game."

Senator George Foster Pearce, Australian delegate to the Disarmament Conference, and for the last eleven years minister of defense for Australia, made this statement yesterday before the Commercial club, whose guest he was at luncheon. He continued:

"Only the jingoes and imperialists of the old school are dissatisfied with the work of the conference and with the Five Powers treaty. Great Britain is well satisfied with the results of the conference, especially as regards the limitation of armaments."

BLUNTNES SURPRISES. "Of course, we were surprised by the blunt statements made at the outset of the conference by Secretary Hughes, but knowing that we could trust the American democracy, we were glad to accept the reduction in the naval program. We knew that the American Navy will never be used as an instrument of aggression. Therefore the 'striking units,' meaning the battleships, of the world's largest navies, have been so reduced in number, that they are now insufficient for aggressive warfare. They can now only be used for the purpose of defense. All this has been achieved by your so-called 'unsophisticated statesman,' Secretary Hughes, who in reality ranks as one of humanity's greatest minds."

"That there has been a great deal of willful misconception of the fact that the Five Powers treaty is not one of military alliance, but that it constitutes merely an agreement on the part of each of the signatories not to interfere with the territorial rights of the other powers in the Pacific. The Senator claimed that the treaty contained no 'jokers,' which could possibly compel any one of its signatories to furnish military or naval aid to the others. 'The treaty,' he said, 'provides a place in the sun for all.' Regarding Japan, Senator Pearce said:

"The Australian states concluded a federation because they were driven by the instinct of self-preservation."

Failure of Brokers' Firms Announced

NEW YORK, March 3.—The failure of George W. Kendrick & Company, brokers, of Philadelphia, was announced today from the rotunda of the New York Stock Exchange, and the Consolidated Stock Exchange announced the suspension of Charles A. Bertrand & Co., A. Bertrand & Company, brokers, of this city.

"We are geographically close to a powerful Asiatic empire—Japan. Our motto is, 'A White Australia.' I believe, whatever ambitions Japan may have had in the past, that she has profited from Germany's terrible example, and she has learned a valuable lesson. This was one of the reasons why she gave up Shantung for Japan now realizes that she must behave like a gentleman in China. Also she does not want any more Koreans on her hands."

Senator Pearce sails for Australia next week.

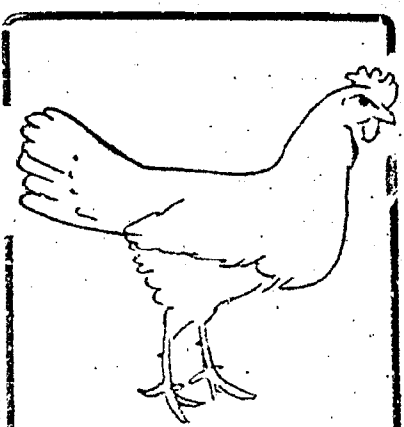

Herbert Deplores U. S. Policy on Art

"The American motion picture theater has done more for the cause of good music than any other single agency in the country," Victor Herbert, famous composer, told the members of the San Francisco Downtown Association at the Hotel St. Francis yesterday afternoon. He said:

"Thousands of people hear good music in the 'movie' theaters twice a week, or more. Were it not for these theaters they would have no opportunity of hearing any music at all—good, bad or indifferent."

"America is not like other countries in that it does not foster art. In the United States the artists possess no influence—political or otherwise. But the bricklayers do—they yield a great influence through their organizations, they control votes, and therefore they can not the government to do things for the country, which the artists cannot."

WIFE SLAYER RECOVERS. MIAMI, Fla., March 3.—Edgar Prady, Chicago automobile man, who shot his wife in her suite in a local hotel last Sunday, was formally charged with murder after her death in a hospital here today. Prady, who slashed his own throat, is recovering in the same hospital.

TRIP SUNDAY TO SEE

the Lands of the Meek Estate, Hayward

Good for 36c

This advertisement, if presented at our Hayward Office Sunday, March 5th, 1922, is good for Thirty-six Cents as a refund of your car fare. Cut it out now if you are coming out in the street car and save 36c.

You can buy this property in fractional acre pieces on terms as low as $10 down.

Why not get a future home-site now?

The land is level and considered to be the most productive in Alameda county.

You buy direct of the owners, the Meek family having owned and farmed the property for over 50 years. It adjoins Cherryland.

City water throughout. City sewers, gas, electric service, sidewalks, etc., in some sections.

300 acres subdivided as follows: All close to cars, schools, etc. Some pieces inside city limits of Hayward.

Poultry Land—Ideal for chickens. Pieces big enough for 100 chickens. Terms, $50 down and $5 month. No interest and no taxes for 1 year. $450

Berry and Nursery Land—Possession given Nov. 1, 1922. Now planted to Strawberries. Produced $1000 per acre in berries last year. Richest of all Meek Lands. Terms, $10 to $150 down and $15 month. Pieces containing over 25,000 square feet for $1500

Orchard—Home-sites. Half-acre pieces containing apricot or cherry trees in full bearing. City water and city sewers. Within city limits of Hayward. Terms, $50 to $175 down. $1675

Restricted Residence Orchard. Pieces—Finest of all Meek Properties. Cement sidewalks, macadam streets, gas, electricity, sewers, 1 block to car lines, 1 block to schools, 3 blocks from banks and business center. Terms, $10 to $100 down. $950

Also 2, 3 and 5-acre pieces of Orchard, Berry and Nursery Land

HOW TO GET THERE

Alaskan Story in Sunday Tribune
GEORGE C. HENDERSON'S latest story, "A Tenderfoot in the Arctic," as its name implies, throws new light on the things of the Far North as viewed by a business man who makes his first trip into the ice land. It is the story of a San Francisco merchant.

In the same issue, Eleanor H. Porter writes a charming short story, "The Glory and the Sacrifice." Complete in this issue.

Absolutely the biggest feature of the year will be released in a few weeks, "The Trail of the Serpent"—a smashing "dope" story by twenty authors—scenes laid in Oakland, Carmel, elsewhere. Watch for it. Soon in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

RISE IN PRICE OF HOGS IS BIG AID TO FARMERS

Packers' Move to Keep Cost Down, Blocked by Bids in Open Market.

CHICAGO, March 4.—When top hogs reached $10 per hundred pounds on the Chicago market recently an unprecedented rise of nearly $3 in a month and a half at the height of the packing season was recorded. Packers stated that at the average price paid hogs were bringing from 80 cents to $1 per bushel for the corn consumed. That establishes the widest price known in the difference of corn sold as grain and corn fed into pork.
"The record set is a signal victory for the open competitive market," said S. B. Stafford, president of the Chicago Livestock Exchange. "In spite of a determined fight on the part of the big packers to hold values down, prices have rapidly advanced through the active competitive bidding of the numerous small packing plants scattered all over the country."
"Only a short time ago a Milwaukee packing house freely prophesied that hogs would sell on a parity with corn prices and cost the packers around $5. But the competition of the smaller houses on the open market upset that program. During December 51 per cent of the hogs received at Chicago were bought by out-shippers and in January they took 39 per cent. This competition is without precedence and indicates to what extent the smaller houses have at least temporarily wrested the control of the market from the big packers."

POLICE FINED FOR ALLOWING KILLING OF HARA

TOKYO, March 3.—(By International News Service.)—An echo of the assassination of Premier Hara was heard today when Police Chief Oka was publicly reprimanded for having failed to prevent the murder of the premier. The police director and the ward chief were each fined three months' pay for their failure to prevent the assassination.

COFFIN ORNATE ENOUGH; DUKE GRANTED REST

LISBON, March 3. (By Associated Press.)—The body of the Duke of Oporto, brother of the late King Carlos, who died in Naples in 1920, was placed in its final resting place in the Pantheon today.

The Duke of Oporto was best known to Americans through his widow, the Duchess of Oporto, who was prominent in New York society as Mrs. Philip Van Valenburgh and who, before her second marriage, was Miss Nevada Hayes. She returned to the United States last July to obtain a suitable coffin for her fourth husband. In August she left for Naples with what was claimed to be the most costly and ornate casket ever shipped from the United States. She explained that her husband's body was to be in state forever in the pantheon at Lisbon and that she wanted a suitable casket which she was unable to find in Europe.

JAPANESE BARRED.
WASHINGTON, March 3.—Secretary Fall, replying today to an inquiry from a Japanese association of Wabata, Wash., regarding the opportunity of its members leasing land in the Yakima Indian reservation, declared all Indian agents had been notified that leases must be confined to American citizens, with veterans of the world war being given preference.

BAY POINT MAN LOST.
BAY POINT, March 3.—A search is being made for Joe Josephson of this city, who disappeared here last night under mysterious circumstances. Josephson's hat was found on a ledge near the dock of one of the lumber companies. Friends of Josephson expressed the belief that Josephson had fallen overboard. The bay in the vicinity of the pier is being dragged for his body.

Highway Robbery Suspect on Trial

Clarence Hyle, charged with participating in numerous highway robberies in Alameda county, was placed on trial today for complicity in the holdup of the store and cafe of Steve Marrucci in El Cerrito on the night of August 27, 1921. Frank Shay, chief deputy district attorney, is conducting the prosecution.

Hyle was arrested with Thomas Whalen and Chester Reel. Both these men have confessed to the robbery. Reel has been released on probation and Whalen is waiting disposal of his case, meanwhile being held in the county jail as a witness against Leo Barron, taxi driver, charged with robbery in connection with the same crime.

The morning and the major portion of the afternoon was spent in securing the jury which is to try Hyle.

Slain Girl's Body Near J. D.'s Estate

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., March 3.—The body of a young woman about 25 years old, who had been murdered, was found today in a wooded area, North Tarrytown, near John D. Rockefeller's estate.

Five cuts, probably inflicted with a knife, were on the left side of the neck and the jugular vein was severed.

Divorce Action Is Elopement Sequel

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Mrs. Richard F. Pease Jr. has filed suit for divorce. She was Emma Watson of Vallejo. The couple eloped to Santa Rosa in 1914. She alleges extreme cruelty. Pease is the local head of a tire company.

CITY TERRORIZED WHEN FEARSOME CALF GOES WILD

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 3. (By Associated Press.)—A "wild" calf at times pursued by police, rangers and a crowd of persons, and at other times the pursuer, terrorized the residence section today. The calf bolted up the steps of a fashionable apartment. Into several places of business and finally was shot. In emerging from one business place the calf carried the door sash with her. Just what made her "wild" has not been determined.

No Lights, Water, Cars Mexico Strikers' Aim

MEXICO CITY, March 3.—(By Associated Press.)—The striking street carmen were able to carry out only a small portion of their program of no lights, no street cars and no water for Mexico City and its suburbs last night, due, it was stated today, to the prompt and energetic action of government troops in guarding the main plant.

Early last night all street car service was suspended, which was followed by an attempt at midnight to shut off all power from Mexico City. This wholesale effort was futile, however, due to the soldier guards, but certain portions of the city were deprived of lights when the strikers pulled open the switch boxes.

President Obregon is personally handling the situation, having met at different times yesterday with representatives of the strikers and G. R. C. Cowans, manager of the Mexican Light and Power company. The latter is said to have conceded thirteen points of fifteen demanded by strikers. The company is a British controlled concern.

Walked 60 Miles to Obtain Citizenship

PORTLAND, Ore., March 3.—Citizenship means more to some aliens than others. Edward Sider, a Russian homesteader, is one of them. Sider lives near Sheridan, Ore. When he missed stage connections for Portland, where he was scheduled to appear at a hearing and secure his final citizenship papers, Sider started afoot for this city with an intention of walking the entire distance of 60 miles and the court quickly granted his citizenship, upon his arrival.

Artist Teaches Former Soldiers

DENVER, March 3.—Every phase of art work, from fancy sign writing to portrait painting, is taught in Denver's Rehabilitation Art School, established nearly two years ago by the Government vocational training bureau for disabled ex-service men. The school is under the supervision of William Knapp, noted artist, and the pupils include incapacitated soldiers from various sections of the United States. The course requires three years' study.

San Leandro Lodge Women to Give Party

SAN LEANDRO, March 3.—Plans were presented last night by the entertainment committee of the Elks' Rebekah Lodge of San Leandro for a St. Patrick's social, to be held Thursday night, March 16. The affair will not be confined to members alone, friends or relatives to those belonging to the lodge being invited to attend. Dancing will feature the night, but tables and cards will be offered those desiring to play whist.

An oven which can be attached to the exhaust of an automobile has been perfected.

Much has been written about queens of the Apaches of Texas until the matter is almost relegated to the category of things fictitious. KID NORFOLK IS ACCUSED OF GOING DOWN WITHOUT BEING HIT IN MATCH WITH WILLS

Mystery Punch Puts Norfolk Down for Count

Blow: Customers Vent
Disapproval.
By HENRY L. FARRELL.

NEW YORK, March 26.—When Georges Carpentier knocked out Battling Levinsky, the verdict of the fans was: "Bad match; never should have been made."

The same thing is being said today about the Wills-Norfolk thing last night in Madison Square Garden.

Both fights were closely related. Both were parts of a smoke-up for another world's championship fight. Carpentier and Wills were called upon to prove that they were good enough for Dempsey. They both knocked out the man selected—by Jack Kearns—and they both were discredited.

Norfolk looked on the level. The Willi
Norfolk thing looked exactly like
"frame." Not a fan of the 10.0
in the Garden saw the blow struck.
One of the judges said it was "terrible" and the house agreed.

Norfolk was looking for "a so-spot" in the first round. He took couple of hard jolts from the hus-
Willis and looked over to Leo Elvi-

to horror. He rushed through the first round but it was apparent that the boys would be home early.

Just after the going for the second round both were in a clinch. Suddenly the referee hurried up, snatched the floor and rolled over, so that it appeared as if he was on his feet at the conclusion of ten and Norfolk seemed surprised when waved to his corner.

The fans didn't know what it was all about and they had to be convinced that they didn't mind it.

A MYSTERIOUS BLOW

Kid McPartland, the referee, saw the knockout came from a "six-in-eight" up to the jaw." How the big boy was so mysteriously hit in his head was a mystery.

Even if Norfolk really did take one, the blow must have been very over in a clinch or when they were going out of one. Wills had been warned about hold and hitting all through the first round he had been very careful and clean in work.

his head was clear, despite "knockout blow" and a terrific jolt head got on the ring floor when took his flop.

The same "smokeup" procedure being used for the Dempsey-Will fight that Carpenter had to through with. According to all terested, Willis is just the oppom for Dempsey and beyond all doubt last night's fight meant nothing. We didn't know anything. But that's

IN PENITENTIARYAntone Bruzzone Is Found Guilty of Murder of Gus Markowitz.

Antone Bruzzone, on trial for the past week for the murder of Gus Markowitz, will be sentenced to San Quentin next Monday morning by Superior Judge Church. A jury last night found Bruzzone guilty of murder in the first degree, and recommended life imprisonment.

Markowitz, who was a crippled veteran of the World War and the Spanish-American war, was shot by Bruzzone during a quarrel, in which he defended himself with an automobile wrench. The quarrel occurred in front of the home of J. E. Hinz, an East Oakland secondhand furniture dealer, last October.

Bruzzone was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Earl Warren and defended by Attorneys Frank M. Carr, Richard M. Lyman Jr., and Milton Sevier. His two children played about the court room during his trial.

The jury was out several hours. Sentence will be pronounced upon Bruzzone by Judge Church at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Fugitive's Bondsmen
Are Sued for $2000

Because Earl Taylor, facing a superior court trial on a burglary charge, jumped his bail last July, his bondsmen, M. J. Fiori, J. J. Fiori, and George Kinley, local tailor, were sued for $2000, the amount of the bond, today by the district attorney's office. Taylor's trial was set for July 18 in Superior Judge Church's court, but he failed to appear and has not been located since. The suit against his bondsmen was filed by Deputy District Attorney Wade Snook.

BERKELEY, March 3.—Calling cards of silver instead of the conventional bits of cardboard usually left at social functions will be necessary at the Alpha Xi Delta and Phi Mu sororities and St. Margaret's house next Friday.

The occasion for the innovation will be the "silver teas" planned for the depleted loan fund of the Associated Women Students at the university. Money raised will be loaned

CARS INJURE TWO AND SPEED AWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Two men were run down and seriously injured by automobiles which failed to stop and render assistance in the downtown section of the city early today.

The two accidents occurred within two blocks of each other.

At 11 Tripp, a deputy county clerk, of 11 Woodward avenue, was crossing at Sutter and Kearny streets when a taxi struck him down.

According to William Paw, of 3707 Sixteenth street, who witnessed the accident, the machine was driving at a high rate of speed and did not even hesitate in its course after Tripp was struck. Paw had him conveyed to the Harbor Emergency hospital, where he was treated for severe lacerations and abrasions.

It. Damiano, janitor for the Bank of Italy, was the second victim. An automobile hit him at the intersection of Kearny, Geary and Market streets. The car stopped for a moment and the driver, stepping out of it, picked up Damiano's hat, and handing it to J. R. Wilson, of 528 Kearny street, said: "Here's his hat. Give it to him." With that the man jumped up into his machine and drove off. Wilson hurried to the aid of the injured man and failed to get the number of the automobile.

Damiano also was sent to the Harbor Emergency hospital. He incurred a fractured pelvis and probable internal injuries.

EXPORTERS FAIL.

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, March 3.—The American firm of Belanger, Incorporated, at Bluefields, Nicaragua, has failed, says a despatch received here. The liabilities were placed at $3,000,000.

Women students in financial difficulties who might otherwise, through illness or loss of positions, be forced to give up their college careers. Loans are made without interest, and are payable as soon after graduation as possible.

Miss Lydia Le Tourneau is directing the silver teas, while among her assistants are: Miss Zelma Battilana, Miss Ruth Marcellus, Miss Mary Louise Wilson, reception; Miss Marion Brandt, publicity.

U. C. Benefit for War Or-

Unique Setting.

BERKELEY, March 3.—Touched by an appeal in behalf of war orphans, Davy Jones will open his famous locker in Harmon gymnasium on March 11 for the annual benefit ball of the Alliance Francaise at the university.

All of Davy's treasured possessions will be in evidence. Foam on the surface of the sea will be represented by varicolored streamers of blue and green across the ceiling. Deep-sea grottoes will form the walls and the orchestra will be seated in a large inverted shell near the "wreckage of a ship." From one of the grottoes Alice Marvin, talented interpretative dancer, will appear in a solo number at the close of the ball.

Six war orphans "adopted" by the university society in 1919 will benefit by the occasion. An annual sum of $200 a child is required for their support and this amount is raised each year by means of an entertainment in the fall and a dance in the spring.

Students working for the success of the affair are: E. C. Simpson, general chairman; G. Woodard, floor committee; Helen Deamer, reception committee; Eugene Schutt, and Eleanor Moses, entertainment; Francis Rocher, finance; Marie Teisacre, patrons; Valentine Pawcett, programs; Jeannette Nieueel, decorations; J. L. Pastorino, ticket sales; Flewelling, refreshments, and Marion Brandt, publicity.

Tickets are on sale for one dollar.

TRAGEDY FOLLOWS JOKE.

NEW YORK, March 3.—"This long skirt will be the death of me," said Mrs. Emily Hasted jokingly to her daughter. The next instant she tripped over the skirt, fell and broke her neck.

BREAK CHEST
COLDS WITH RED PEPPER

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

At the moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck, sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known. Always say "Rowles."—Advertisement.

McKenna, Wash.—"I consider Dr. Pierce's medicines to be wonderfully good and recommend them to everybody. I used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for feminine trouble and was cured. And my uncle used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with fine results."—Mrs. Bert Putman, Box 192.

When run-down you can quickly pick up and regain vim, vigor, vitality by obtaining this Medical Discovery of Dr. Pierce at your nearest drug store in tablets or liquid, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg., or write for advice.—Advertisement.

CHOIR GIRL SHOT
WHILE SINGING

PORTLAND, Ore., March 3.—Elmer W. Weatherford was arrested this morning and is held incommunicado in the city jail as the result of the shooting in St. Stephens Pro-Cathedral last night of Miss Williamene Fuller, 17.

Miss Fuller was shot through the breast, the bullet lodging against a rib. She was reported this morning to be resting easily and to have a chance for recovery.

Miss Fuller, who came here with her mother a year ago from Los Angeles, where she was well known, was sitting in the front row of the St. Stephens choir shortly before 9 o'clock last night, practicing the hymns for the Sunday service.

Suddenly the form of a man, masked with a white handkerchief, appeared from the rear shadows of the church.

"Put up your hands," he commanded, according to a version given by Miss Mabel McClay, who sat next to Miss Fuller.

"I thought it was a joke," said Miss McClay. "The absurdity of the situation struck us all and we did not make a move to comply with his orders. Then his revolver, a small black one, spat toward us, he picked up a hat belonging to one of the men in the choir and fled.

"We still thought some one had played a practical joke on us for a moment. Williamene, sitting next to me, slumped in her chair, clasped her hands to her body and said: 'I'm hurt, I'm hurt.'

"Not until she took her hands away, and I saw blood on them, did the reality come home to me. The men carried Williamene to a table in the rear of the room, where we made her as comfortable as we could while some one ran to a telephone and called the police."

No motive other than attempted robbery has been attached to the crime.

200 CALIFORNIA
PRISONERS TAKE
U. C. MAIL COURSE

BERKELEY, March 3.—Over two hundred prisoners in the State of California are at present studying technical courses of university standing, according to a record recently issued by the Technical Department of the University of California Extension Division. During the past fiscal year of 1920-21, 23 per cent of the total enrollments in the correspondence courses in this branch of education were from prisoners.

The report further showed that 2,158 men received training in the various branches of technical instruction during the last year. In the class work the most popular subject was electricity followed by courses in automobile mechanics and machine shop.

Among the correspondence courses, mechanics of the automobile also received the highest enrollment. Next in popularity in the correspondence subjects were electrical engineering, mathematics, mineralogy and civil engineering.
